

DIVERSITY CASTING SHOWCASE SUBMISSIONS

FACT SHEET

SAG-AFTRA EEO & Diversity Department is pleased to present industry diversity casting showcase opportunities for members throughout the year. Most importantly, it is imperative that members read the instructions carefully and follow the submission directions provided in each showcase notice. The following is a list of tips that address the most frequently asked questions about diversity casting showcases.

Thank you.

1. All qualified performers can submit, without regard to disability, race, age, color, national origin, sexual orientation or gender identity.
2. Do not double submit if already submitted through another union or other entity (i.e. an agent or manager).
3. Submissions will not be accepted before or after the submission period.
4. Both union and non-union members can submit to most showcases.
5. The information is being passed along to you as a courtesy only. SAG-AFTRA has no influence on the selection process, timeline and/or qualifications.
6. If selected, you must be available to participate in auditions and rehearsals. If you don't live nearby, you must be able to cover transportation costs, unless otherwise noted.
7. Self-taped auditions are auditions that you can tape from anywhere. You then send in this footage either by uploading it to the website the directions indicated or by sending the footage to the address or email provided.
 - a. For more information about self-taped auditions, refer to the SAG Foundation's "LifeRaft: How to Self-Tape Auditions: Part One – Production" (<http://youtu.be/D79zOFTiLfs>) & "LifeRaft: How to Self-Tape Auditions: Part Two - Post Production" (<http://youtu.be/9umJNHgRVwk>)
8. If a submission notice requires an Actors Access (www.actorsaccess.com) account, you can email Actors Access in order to speak with a specialist who can answer your questions at info@actorsaccess.com or call their main line at (310) 385-6920.
9. You are welcome to contact the EEO & Diversity Department with have any additional questions at diversity@sagaftra.org. Please read all of the directions and instructions provided in the notice carefully before contacting us.

Thank you again!
