Actor Bio:

I was exposed to performing as a dancer as a very young girl which led me to teaching in a studio in my early 20's and still I continue to choreograph and work with young performers. I am an artist. My passion is in telling stories through movement, expression, dialogue and in portraying different roles that are real and believable. I've had the pleasure to play in independent and feature films landing roles that aren't always the sweetest people..condescending, cheating, judgemental, stern, blunt and down right mean, I would say, are in my wheelhouse. Of course, this is just on screen! xo
