Actor Bio:

I was born in raised in So Cal, except for a brief sojourn to Paris France, where I spent several years of my childhood I am what you can call a native Californian. I caught the acting bug in high school but really wasn't a cast-able type coming out of college, so I pursued a career as an scenic designer and artist. A bit older and more tried by life, I decided tried acting again. I was amply rewarded by being Taft-Hartley'd into SAG and then quickly joined AFTRA and have been working as an Actor for over 20 years. I've now added On Camera work to my resume since appearing as a guest star on "The Mentalist" and I have had 3 National on camera commercials running simultaneously. I've portrayed hard grizzled Cowboy villains, an Amish farmer, a Wizard, as well as Doctors, Lawyers, Professors, Shrinks, Judges, Grandpas and even the occasional Rabbi. I delight in being a character actor who can play an age range between 55 and death---and beyond.
