Actor Bio:

Steve is a Bronx born and bred multi-ethnic actor. His first acting gig was in the 3rd grade when he was cast as Pinocchio in the school play. School officials recognized his talents immediately and recommended he be placed in a drama class.

In theater Steve has been in Ray Bradbury's New York Premiere of "Fahrenheit 451, Sex, Relationships & Sometimes Love (written and directed by Joelle Arqueros), North Shore Fish, The Wayside Motor Inn, The Steven Vega Show and The Fabulous Allen Parsons Show. He has been seen on television hits like Celebrity Ghost Stories, Monsters Inside Us and a web series called Method or Madness. He was also featured on an episode of the original Law & Order Season 19 as well as Law & Order SVU.

Steven began his training at HB Studios and then went on to train at The American Academy of Dramatic Arts. He continues training privately with well known coaches.

Steve would like to thank his friends, family and mentor Daisaku Ikeda. "It is because of all their combined support that I am able to do what I am passionate about. A very special thanks to my mom, "Thank you for being my hero".

My mission is to add value and enjoyment to people's lives through my performance.

"Go confidently in the direction of your dreams! Live the life you've imagined."

- Thoreau
