Throwing many of our senior performers off our SAG-AFTRA health plan was unconscionable, especially during a pandemic! We need strong, innovative leaders to lead the charge negotiating our contracts, ensuring the financial health of our Members and Health and Pension Plans. As LA Local’s EEOC’s Chair, we initiated an event bringing the first Unconscious Bias panel to the Producers’ Guild. Five years later UB training is the industry standard. Vote for your LA Local leadership team: Jodi Long for President, the encyclopedic David Jolliffe and kick-ass Sheryl Lee Ralph as your Vice-Presidents. Vote MODINE-FISHER MembershipFirst.com

Two years ago, I ran for the National Board because I wanted to give back to the union that protected and supported me for 25 years. Union service has been one of my greatest joys, and I remain committed to ensuring that every member has what they need to do their job safely and joyously. To that end, I am running for President of the Los Angeles Local. Trust me to lead our Los Angeles Local: I promise to be a respectful, efficient, kind, and productive force as we work together to build a greater future for this union we all love.

Throughout my 2 terms as your 2nd Vice-President, I’ve tried to lead with strength, honesty and compassion. We in Los Angeles have held the line against a National Board that is reckless, weak and incapable of working in the best interests of the membership. We were betrayed by our own Union regarding the SAG-AFTRA Health Plan. We must start negotiating from a position of strength and stop giving away hard fought for—and won—benefits. It’s time for all of us to come together and reestablish a union that will protect all of us.

I love being a screen actor. As glamorous as it looks, when you pull back the curtain there are decisions being made concerning performers that need serious attention. As a 40-year SAG-AFTRA member, it is my honor to step up to serve our Union membership. Helping people can be a difficult task, especially when people don’t realize specifically what help they need. From Weak Contracts to safety on set, a Healthcare Plan in crisis and worry over our Pension Plans, we must be vigilant! I’m here to help and I ask for your vote.

The LA Board has been chaotic and contentious, yet I have managed to get along with nearly everyone. LA saw how I run rooms when I co-chaired the Commercial W&Ws (with someone from another party!). Recently a member wrote, “I so appreciate the energy, intelligence, commitment and maybe most of all the perky good will you bring to our meetings.”

As VP, I would do my best to make sure all voices are heard, debate is productive, and agenda items are discussed in the allotted time. Time is money. Let’s stop wasting it.

I’m a current LA Board member with serious concerns about our union. OUR HEALTH CARE - Needs better protection. 9K+ senior members lost coverage. Who will be next? OUR PENSIONS are 75% funded. We must safeguard our future. OUR CONTRACTS - We need better rates, better BS numbers and safety on sets for ALL performers. OUR RESIDUALS - Performers count on them. We cannot let them disappear. These and other issues are my concerns. If they are yours, respectfully, I need your vote. Vote MODINE-FISHER MembershipFirst.com

I am running as an Independent Candidate in this upcoming election. I feel Independent Candidates need their voices heard as well. I am not being endorsed by either one of the candidates and doing this all on my own merit. I’ve been involved in SAG-AFTRA politics since 2017, starting out as a Convention Delegate. I’ve been on various different committees throughout the years, and will continue to volunteer my time. The current state of the SAG-AFTRA health/pension plans & the residuals payments are my top priority. Thanks for your support and hope to get your vote.

As a working stunt woman and member of SAG-AFTRA for 9 years I have experienced how hard it is for minorities, women and protected classes to advance into leadership roles, secure work and maintain health insurance. I am running for Local Board because I WILL FIGHT for real systematic change, create more diverse work environments, break down racial barriers, reduce nepotism and ensure fair and equitable hiring so that our future generations are inclusive and diverse. Together we can make critical choices for our community that establish a path for advancement and create opportunities needed for EVERYONE to excel. www.UniteforStrength.com

MembershipFirst knows that unions are the only organized effort on the face of this planet whose sole purpose is the redistribution of greed. Greed toossed 11,750 senior performers from our Health Plan—mid Pandemic—despite the fact that, for decades, these very seniors paid to build it. Greed creates your teary residuals. Greed is why your pension accrues at half the rate of your own paid employees. Confused? Concerned? Conflicted? Clear, coherent solutions are yours for the reading at MembershipFirst.com. For better or worse, technology is changing our industry everyday. Diversity is now a requirement of the business model. As chair of the Diversity Advisory Committee, I’ll continue to fight for better, more authentic representation and equal treatment on both sides of the camera, in all categories of work, for all races, ethnicities, genders, sexual orientations, ages and (dis)abilities. Streaming has destabilized the economics of the business. Logic, experience, strategy and data must guide us in future negotiations, not emotional arguments, outdated paradigms, or wishfully hoping to resurrect the “good of days.” Our diversity and unity is our strength. www.UniteforStrength.com

I stumbled into union service with a few ideas and a lot of frustration with the status quo. In my time volunteering on both local and national committees, I’ve learned that smart voices can steer an entire room towards creative, innovative change. I show up. I listen. The reason for joining a union is that together we can achieve better wages, working conditions and benefits, than if divided. Under the current SAG-AFTRA president and Board majority, our union is polarized. There is no diversity of opinion on the National Committees or with benefit Plan Trustees. It is no wonder the Health Plan is in such trouble. It is no wonder the union cannot achieve better contracts. In order to change this sad state of affairs, we must change our leadership. SAG-AFTRA threw our seniors off the Health Plan. During COVID! Whatever happened to, “We Take Care of Our Own”? Our current National Leaders tried to avoid taking responsibility, by falsely claiming that SAG-AFTRA has nothing to do with the Health Plan. UNTRUE. SAG-AFTRA seats the Trustees. SAG-AFTRA negotiates the contracts that fund the Health Plan. It was we MembershipFirst Los Angeles Board Members who stood up and fought back. Independents in the multi-Actors’ Category need voices heard in the Board Room. There are no promises that they will be represented. I wish to be that voice. Members are still owed residuals. For 13 years I have worked and continue to work under 3 levels of a SAG-AFTRA Contract as a Stunt Performer, Principal Actor and Background Actor. For 13 years I have heard all about historic gains and seen nothing but historic losses. The system is broken. If I vote for the entire UNI/ON should be focused on returning health benefits to those who worked their entire careers to earn them. Their work continues to pay for something they cannot use. They should be celebrated, not punished. Transparency has been a huge problem. Impactful decisions made without members input needs to end.

I remain committed to ending the toxic culture of manipulation, corruption, and non-transparency that defines our current national leadership. Their decepions and poor decision-making led to over 11,000 people losing their SAG-AFTRA health plan coverage, just 2 weeks after pushing a subpar contract that they promised would “keep the plans healthy.” Where is the accountability? Since receiving my SAG card in 2001, I’ve been proud to call myself an actor and am grateful for a union that allows me to make a living doing what I love. However, during that time, our industry has changed, but our union has not been able to keep up. The pandemic reinforced the importance of entertainment, stories and reliable information. It’s what we do and society needs us! I’ll advocate for fairer casting process, higher minimum background numbers and removing stand-ins from the count, locally parity, national coverage standardized classic car rates plus increased access for actors with disabilities. It’s time to get some new energy and leadership in SAG-AFTRA, OUR union! I pledge to work with leadership and the new executive director for the meaningful gains and improvement to make this acting life better for all of us. Thank you for your support. In union solidarity, Richard Olmsted.

I believe in being a voice of reason and a voice of dissent. I lost my Lifetime Medical after earning it for 28 years and I am livid. I am angry at what complacency can do when those in charge preserve the status quo rather than fight. There is NO excuse for this – it is a betrayal plain and simple. I am committed to fighting for you as I have for over 9 years now. I have served on the Local Board and been on 5 Negotiating Committees. Thank you. Vote MODINE-FISHER. MembershipFirst.com

I’m a two-time cancer survivor and a working actor for almost 30 years. I know how important our health benefits are and how hard they are to earn. That’s why during 5 major negotiations I’ve fought to improve our contracts, protect our plans, increase our residuals, and make benefits accessible for all. As chair of both the National and LA Background Actors Committees, I’ve worked hard for BG issues. Background needs a permanent board seat. We need contracts that support everyone. We need leaders who’ll fight for you. I ask for your support. Vote MODINE-FISHER. MembershipFirst.com

I’ve worked as an actor for over twenty years, and seen a lot of changes in that time. I know there will be more changes to come. I want to ensure fair contracts, safe and respectful workplaces committed to anti-racism, and a union that speaks to the needs of all performers, especially those too often left out. I would be honored to serve our membership. www.UniteforStrength.com

My reasoning for running for LA Local Board member is simple: we need new faces and voices representing the interests of all SAG members, from the newest to the most successful, to provide membership with the best possible compensation, benefits and working conditions in our industry. To ensure equity at the local level so that all locals have the same job opportunities based on headcounts, solvency of our health and pension benefits, effective monitoring of workplaces by guild representatives. I ask for your vote for LA Local Board Mark A. Planas

Originally designed to be run by its membership, SAG-AFTRA has become weakened by the loss of members’ participation. I fear that we may be in peril of losing not only our constituency, but the very foundations of this Union. We need good and safe working conditions, a strong and restored health and pension plan, higher minimum rates commensurate with inflation, greater participation in the new forms of exhibition, distribution, and sales of our work, so future generations of Union members are able to call their work a profession, not an avocation. My passion is to help ALL members, but my focus is to end ageism and gender bias toward senior and women members to increase employment opportunities and respect for those underserved “minorities.” As a Los Angeles Local Board member and Chair of the LA Seasoned Performers Committee, I immediately collaborated with insurance professionals (and continue to do so) to tirelessly guide countless seniors to new health insurance after theirs was unceremoniously cancelled. I campaign against ageism, including Stop the Hate. Committees include: National Seniors; LA Women’s SAG-AFTRA Radio Plays. I love being a screen actor. As glamorous as it looks, when you pull back the curtain there are decisions being made concerning performers that need serious attention. As a 40-year SAG-AFTRA member, it is my honor to step up to serve our Union membership. Helping people can be a difficult task, especially when people don’t realize specifically what help they need. From Weak Contracts to safety on set, a Healthcare Plan in crisis and worry over our Pension Plans, we must be vigilant! I’m here to help and I ask for your vote. Our profession faces more pressure than ever due to tectonic changes taking place in every sector of our employment. Whether it’s the exponential rise in streaming whose later dividends are muted, or the multi-platform uses of our work, I believe we need to be nimble to react and be proactive during these changes. I ask for your vote so that basic fairness and intelligence speak in the room, that above all else our union stands united in demanding decency, fair treatment, and fair pay for our work. www.UniteforStrength.com

Jodi is a local EEOC Chair, served on the Actor’s Executive Committee of the Academy, is a current Emmy nominee, and past President of Visual Communications, which produces the LA Asian Film Festival. We are alarmed by SAG-AFTRA’s eroding contracts, disastrous financial mismanagement and the dictatorship of the National President, who used Covid to silence opposition. I am a proud member of SAG-AFTRA since 1988. I love my job, but with so many changes in the industry it is nearly impossible for the working actor like me to make a living. This year I’ve realized just can’t sit back anymore. I need to get involved and work hard to make change – change that will make things better for ALL of us. We want the same things. We want better pay and residuals, pension, healthcare, increased diversity, inclusion, an end to unfair exclusivity... and that’s just for starters. I have been a proud, grateful union member for over thirty years, working steadily in film and television since I was 9 years old. I’m running for both Local and National Boards to listen, learn, and vote my conscience in hopes of creating more equitable and safe working environments for performers. As a 25-year SAG-AFTRA member I’ve worked almost every union contract. I have experienced everything from working class prosperity to a starving artist existence, so I understand intimately the needs, concerns, and challenges we face at every level. Tough talk and big promises are easy, but we must elect those willing to do the unglamorous work of governance—folks who work harder and smarter to achieve tangible results and create impactful change that will benefit YOU and every member. Dreamer, journey-woman actress, mother, intimacy coordinator. I am here in pursuit of equitable pay and harassment-free work environments. One where artists can thrive embracing the spectrum of our gender identities, race, abilities, and sexual orientations. I serve as Co-Vice Chair of the LA Committee on Sexual Harassment and have trained to become a certified intimacy coordinator. #MeToo bravely paved the way, but the work has just begun. We need leadership that understands what our members want: taking on the online casting services that cost over $600/year for access to work, creating self-taping guidelines to protect us from unreasonable requirements, access to casting directors, writers, directors, and producers, and the best education so we can be more competitive in an increasingly global marketplace. I have always followed my instincts and stayed true to who I am. But I’ve noticed in writers rooms that the lack of representation for women, LGBTQ, people of color and other marginalized groups, translates into a skewed vision of the world. I have literally been in this "biznis" all of my life. As a Scion, the daughter of a passionate celebrity activist, I became aware of the strength of unionizing, watching my father fight for what’s right in both social justice and artistic arenas. Ageism, sexism, racism, and wage disparity have no place in a strong workforce. SAG-AFTRA, the most powerful entertainment union in the world, is responsible for establishing wages and working conditions between its signatories and our members. Serving on the National and LA Boards and Executive Committee for the past 6 years and working daily as a SAG-AFTRA singer and vocal contractor under our union contracts, I’ve witnessed the constant threat of an industry wanting something for nothing. The singers I represent experience this daily as work continues pouring out of the country. I promise I’ll do whatever possible to stop this outsourcing and ensure our members remain valued and sought after. www.UniteforStrength.com

As a lifelong SAG-AFTRA member, I understand and appreciate the strength we have in collective bargaining. For the past 20 years, I’ve had the privilege of serving on several committees and boards, both locally and nationally. If reelected, I will continue to advocate for you, fight to keep work here, and look for ways to embrace the changes we face as a union. www.UniteforStrength.com

I am running as an Independent Candidate in this upcoming election. I feel Independent Candidates need their voices heard as well. I am not being endorsed by either any slate, and doing this all on my own merit. I’ve been involved in SAG-AFTRA politics since 2017, starting out as a Convention Delegate. I’ve been on various different committees throughout the years, and will continue to volunteer my time. The current state of the SAG-AFTRA health/pension plans & the residuals payments are my top priority. Thanks for your support and hope to get your vote.

Proud working member for 40+ years with 400+ credits. This has allowed me to have an extensive overview of our industry and what is needed for a sustainable career. As your Los Angeles SAG-AFTRA National Board Member, my guiding principle is to make sure we have the opportunity to earn a decent living with quality Healthcare and Pension. I have learned in these times Strong Voices are imperative. I will continue to take a Stand for You! It would be an honor to represent you. Vote MODINE-FISHER MembershipFirst.com

In 2020, our current administration touted an historic contract. I was outraged. We all know that we can and should do better. I knew I had to get back into the boardroom, I ask for your vote for seats on both the National and Local Boards. I will dedicate my energy and passion to the real work of Committees and Administration which the issues require; strong and strategic negotiations, better protection on sets, world-class Health Care, support regarding self-taping, protecting our pensions, contract enforcement and more. 38 years in our Union, I am ready. Like many of us, I’m not happy with the direction our Union is headed. the final straw for me was the collapsing of our Health Plan. Nearly 12,000 of our fellow sisters and brothers lost their SAG-AFTRA Health Insurance. We must do better in our contract negotiations. Renting our Los Angeles Offices at $6 million per year is crazy. I DO want to thank our current Los Angeles Board for standing up for us. It’s the National Board that needs attention. That’s why I’m stepping up to serve on the National Board. Vote MODINE-FISHER MembershipFirst.com

For better or worse, technology is changing our industry everyday. Diversity is now a requirement of the business model. As chair of the Diversity Advisory Committee, I’ll continue to fight for better, more authentic representation and equal treatment on both sides of the camera, in all categories of work, for all races, ethnicities, genders, sexual orientations, ages and (dis)abilities. Streaming has destabilized the economics of the business. Logic, experience, strategy and data must guide us in future negotiations, not emotional arguments, outdated paradigms, or wishfully hoping to resurrect the “good ol’ days.” Our diversity and unity is our strength. www.UniteforStrength.com

I was honored to have served in the past on both the Local and National Boards. I’m an independent with 41 years in AFTRA, 39 years SAG. I’ve worked series reg, recurring, guest star, et all. I won’t sugarcoat this. If you don’t see the losses sustained under current ‘leadership’, then you’re not working the contacts YET, or you’re not paying attention. Ask those making their living under our contracts. Ask the 11,000 who lost health insurance. Ask those who’ve lost tens of thousands of earned pension dollars due to reducing members’ accrual rate by 43% in 2010, while leaving staff’s the same. Also, I know PERSONALLY how dishonest they are! I’m fed up! VOTE Modine/Fisher

As a 30+ year member, I was honored to be serving on the board when we merged into one unified union. I appreciate the value of unity and the collective pursuit of the overall well being of every union member. Nearly a decade later, artists face new challenges as the landscape of our industry continues to evolve. Though we’ve made great strides, the journey continues and there’s more work to be done. I will listen, learn and pursue all options that work for the betterment of our members. There is strength in numbers. We’re in this together. www.UniteforStrength.com

I have been a proud union activist since 1994, working many contracts: soap operas, commercials, VO and on-camera, background, stand-in, day players, guest stars, recurring arcs and principal series regulars. Every contract deserves a strong voice fighting for rights and security in this changing market. I’ve been honored to serve as a POC National Board member. As an Actor and Activist, I cannot stay silent when I witness inequality and injustices. I understand the intricacies of negotiations and the diligence required to protect our rights in this shifting playing field. I want to continue to be that voice. www.UniteforStrength.com

SAG Ralph Morgan Award-Honoree. Four terms as SAG’s 1st VP. Seventeen years as a SAG Board member and 4 years on the AFTRA board. Chaired SAG’s EEOC Committee. Served on over 7 contract negotiating teams. I’m running because the members have been poorly served by SAG-AFTRA, especially the appalling changes in our pension and health plans. Changes which disproportionately negatively impact older actors, women of all ages, performers with disabilities and performers of color. A greedy, thoughtless action taken by “our” elected and our former NED. Please Vote MODINE-FISHER MembershipFirst.com

For 13 years I have worked and continue to work under 3 levels of a SAG-AFTRA Contract as a Stunt Performer, Principal Actor and Background Actor. For 13 years I have heard all about historic gains and seen nothing but historic losses. The system is broken. #1 item for the entire UNION should be focused on returning health benefits to those who worked their entire careers to earn them. Their work continues to pay for something they cannot use. They should be celebrated, not punished. Transparency has been a huge problem. Impactful decisions made without members input needs to end.

118 / DAD JOYLIFE
Throughout my 2 terms as your 2nd Vice-President, I’ve tried to lead with strength, honesty and compassion. We in Los Angeles have held the line against a National Board that is reckless, weak and incapable of working in the best interests of the membership. We were betrayed by our own Union regarding the SAG-AFTRA Health Plan. We must start negotiating from a position of strength and stop giving away hard fought for-and won-benefits. We need to be proactive for the interests of our diverse membership, particularly for underrepresented communities. We must infuse fresh perspectives to stay ahead of emerging trends in the media landscape. I will work to strengthen our contracts with earnings/residuals, restore health plan coverage, address disparities with pensions, champion safe working conditions, increase resources for young performers, and promote Asian-American/Pacific-Islander voices. Having served as Secretary-Treasurer the past 2 years, it’s clear to me what issues the members are most concerned about. It’s my mission to transform the way SAG-AFTRA engages and communicates with the members, instilling pride and ownership in our union. I am asking for your vote. SAG-AFTRA has surrendered so many of the hard-fought gains made by our predecessors that it’s becoming difficult to keep track. Your turn-a-round when you work on TV shows outside of LA - Gone. Travel days - no longer a work day with a benefit plan contribution. Background Actors - not covered by union protections where production is growing. Worst of all, the merged Health Plan could not honor the commitment made to seniors. What’s next? Enough is Enough. SAG-AFTRA must continue moving forward. Under the leadership of Unite for Strength and its allies we achieved over $1 Billion in contract gains, $318 Million in 2020 alone, garnered huge increases in streaming residuals, secured protections for new and emerging platforms, and created new member driven contracts. We helped create the Return To Work Safety Protocols, Sexual Harassment and Nudity Protections in auditions and on set, and a 24-hour Safety Hotline. No lies, no attacks. Just progress. 128 / STEFANIE POWERS
Joined SAG in 1981, now SAG-AFTRA. Performed as an actor in films, television, live TV, documentaries, and broadcast as a union professional. At all times I have worked only in productions that were union signatories. I have not always agreed with positions taken by our union in past negotiations, but I have always thought that our union acted in the best interests of its membership. However, recently, especially in 2020, I have become disappointed/concerned with the actions of what has become an unrecognized Union to the one I joined years ago. We need change. My passion is to help ALL members, but my focus is to end ageism and gender bias toward senior and women members to increase employment opportunities and respect for those underserved “minorities.” As a Los Angeles Local Board member and Chair of the LA Seasoned Performers Committee, I immediately collaborated with insurance professionals (and continue to do so) to tirelessly guide countless seniors to new health insurance after theirs was unceremoniously cancelled. In 2019 our Local voted for change and the ruling regime has done everything in their power to punish us for it, including needlessly shutting our Locals down since March 2020. Despite that, we used the forced downtime to educate, support, and empower our members through online Town Halls, and a new union literacy guide and website (solidarity.us). I’m a husband, a father and a middle-class working actor. The same integrity I bring to my marriage, my parenting and my career is the same integrity I will bring to the SAG-AFTRA board. Ideas dream of success. Success dreams of longevity. Longevity dreams of strength and stability. Let’s bring back the strength and stability of this union which I have been a proud member of since 1994.

A proud SAG-AFTRA member since 1987. With changes in the industry, I’m working harder and earning less. Let’s stop the in-fighting and come together. Only 21% of members voted last time! I decided to stop complaining, get informed, and try to make real changes instead. We all want the same things: better pay and working conditions, good residuals, pension, retirement, healthcare, increased diversity, inclusion, better advanced pay terms, better contract enforcement, an end to unfair exclusivity. I’ve learned a lot about self-advocating and I will work hard to make our union better for all of us! www.UniteforStrength.com

I’m running as an independent candidate for the SAG-AFTRA National Board. If elected, I won’t be voting along party lines. I’ll be voting with only one priority in mind - serving your interests. As Co-Chair of the National Animation Negotiating Committee during recent contract negotiations, I worked hard to deliver tangible improvements to our members. If elected, my focus will be on finding rational solutions to remove roadblocks preventing us from being paid as promised, and on fostering a culture within the Union where all members are treated with dignity and respect.

137 / SHARON STONE
I always tell the truth when it’s time to hear the truth. The protections we have achieved don’t go nearly far enough. I’ve been fortunate to enjoy 40 years working in our industry, but I’ve also been the victim of sexual harassment and discrimination. I also suffered an extreme health emergency and know how critical it is to have our promised healthcare when that unforeseen moment comes. It was an honor to be presented with a Nobel Peace Summit Award for work with the HIV/AIDS crisis. Compassion and hard work are my commitment to you. Vote MODINE-FISHER MembershipFirst.com

The current leadership has created an illusion of stability. The era of self-congratulations must end. We should never accept the notion that we are lucky to get what we get, while giving away hard-earned benefits. Our contracts are negotiated with too much deference to our employers and not enough from the position of strength we performers actually hold. With 40 years of membership under my belt, it’s time to serve. I have literally been in this “bizniss” all of my life. As a Scion, the daughter of a passionate celebrity activist, I became aware of the strength of unionizing, watching my father fight for what’s right in both social justice and artistic arenas. Ageism, sexism, racism, and wage disparity have no place in a strong workforce. I applaud how far we’ve come, but am staunchly aware of how far we still have to go for fairness in our worth, comparable opportunities, and being hired to tell OUR stories, in front of and behind the camera. Diversity, not Division. www.UniteforStrength.com
Being President of SAG-AFTRA for the past 5 1/2 years has been an honor and a privilege. I'm stepping down as it's time to pass the baton and asking for your vote as a Los Angeles National Board member. We've made significant progress: reimagining our Commercials contract, securing better streaming residuals, fighting sexual harassment and keeping our members safe, developing Intimacy Coordinator accreditation to provide protection during intimate work. With the Pandemic, we fought to include members in the stimulus package and for additional unemployment compensation, then led the way to reopening the industry. My commitment has not wavered.

Help me make our Union strong, powerful, and working for all members. The status quo is not working. We are losing too much – (1) retirees are losing their health plan, (2) our income hasn't sufficiently been raised in ages, and (3) background and stunt performers are grossly unprotected. As a Forensic Psychologist, I look for multiple ways to fix problems. I fight for what is right! I will fight for all of us! I am needed here. Let's bring back the pride we felt with the first SAG Awards show – I am an actress. Here's my card! #independent

After nearly 30 years as a union member, journeyman actor, and a champion for fairness, equity, and inclusion, it would be a privilege to serve and represent you on our National Board. Alongside my fellow UFS leaders, I will bring a wealth of experience from a career and life that has taught me resilience and has empowered me to be a voice for justice. I have a passion for our work, our art and for our safety, which includes our physical and mental health and an unflinching eye to secure our future. Thank you for your vote.
