4. RECOGNITION, RULES AND REGULATIONS

AFTRA agrees and represents that it is and will continue to be an open union, and will admit to and retain in membership all eligible Performers who an Employer may engage, except Performers suspended or expelled by AFTRA.

AFTRA warrants and agrees that it represents, and will continue to represent for the duration of this Agreement, a majority of the Performers engaged by the Employer for the production of Material for Interactive Media. Said bargaining unit is without prejudice to either party. Employer recognizes AFTRA as the exclusive collective bargaining agent for Performers for the purposes stated herein and agrees that during the term of this Agreement, all Performers employed or otherwise engaged by Employer for the production of Interactive Programs (except as specified in Section 6) will become members of AFTRA in good standing in accordance with the provisions of Section 13 of Article I. Employer further recognizes that members of AFTRA must abide by AFTRA’s Constitution, By-laws, Rules and Orders, and the obligations thereof and that the engagement is subject to such rules. AFTRA agrees that it has no present rule requirement, or obligation upon its members, and during the term of this Agreement will make no future rule, requirement or obligation which is in derogation of this Agreement. AFTRA agrees not to impose unreasonable entrance fees or dues upon its members. Whenever necessary for the Employer’s purposes, AFTRA agrees to qualify members within twenty-four (24) hours after notice from the Employer.

5. REASON FOR CODE

This Agreement represents the minimum wages and working conditions for Performers in the production and use of Material for Interactive Programs, thus ensuring more stable, harmonious and ethical conditions in the industry for Performers and Employer.

6. APPLICATION

This Agreement shall not apply to the following:

- A. Interactive Programs consisting substantially of film;
- B. Interactive Programs consisting substantially of animation; provided that such animation is of a style and format traditionally covered by The Screen Actors Guild (“SAG”), e.g., cartoons that have a story line and which involve characters that are brought to life through voices. However, included in this AFTRA Agreement are computer graphic animation and/or video graphic animation and/or tape video animation that portray characters for purposes of a microprocessor-based game, which are to be manipulated by the user in a game type setting;
- C. Any film production wherein more than half of which is made up of excerpts or whole Programs that were produced under a SAG agreement.

7. TERM OF AGREEMENT

The term of this Agreement shall commence from July 1, 2011 and remain effective through December 31, 2014. In the event either party has not served appropriate timely notice of termination for the expiration date above, the Agreement shall be extended on a day-to-day basis until sixty (60) days after either party serves written notice of termination on the other; provided, that if AFTRA serves such notice to Employer during the production of an Interactive Program, then such sixty (60) period will be extended with respect to such Interactive Program only until Employer has completed production of such Interactive Program.

8. GEOGRAPHICAL JURISDICTION

The terms and conditions of this Agreement apply to the production of Material for Interactive Media in the United States, its territories and possessions, or anywhere else in the world for which the Performers are engaged in the United States by Employer.

9. EMPLOYER’S DUTIES

- A. Employer will not enter into any agreement with or employ any Performer for the production of Material for Interactive Media upon terms and conditions less favorable to the Performer than those set forth in this Agreement.
- B. No waiver by any Performer of any provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless the written consent of AFTRA to such waiver is first obtained.
- C. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to prevent any Performer from negotiating for and/or obtaining from Employer better terms than the minimum terms provided for herein.
- D. Employer shall notify the AFTRA office no later than the time of hiring or forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the initial session, whichever is later, of the names of Performers to be used in the production of Material for Interactive Media, except where the circumstances do not allow sufficient time to give such notice. It shall be the duty of the Employer (to the extent Employer has not received clearances from AFTRA for specific Performers) to ascertain if each Performer is a member of AFTRA in good standing by examining the AFTRA membership card of each member of the cast at the first session and to notify the local AFTRA office of the name of any person failing to present a valid paid-up membership card. Such notice shall be given to AFTRA immediately following the first session, or if the AFTRA office is closed at that time, such notice shall be given to the AFTRA office as soon as possible on the following work day.

- E. Nothing herein shall obligate any person, film or corporation which may be affiliated with Employer (including but not limited to parent and affiliated corporations) to either comply with, negotiate with or become signatory to this AFTRA Agreement or any other AFTRA Code or other agreement of a controlled, allied or affiliated union.

10. CLEANLINESS

Consistent with their obligations under law to provide a safe and healthy work environment, to the extent that production facilities or equipment utilized by the Employers are within the Employers' control, effective July 1, 2005, the Employers will make good faith efforts to ensure the cleanliness of such facilities and equipment.

11. NOTICE TO AFTRA

Effective July 1, 2005, the Employer shall notify AFTRA not less than five (5) days before the first scheduled recording session in connection with a new videogame or interactive program, provided as follows: In recognition of the facts that programs often are highly confidential and proprietary and that employers may be subject to confidentiality limitations imposed by customers, the requisite notice may identify the videogame or program by a fictitious name rather than by its actual name. Upon public disclosure of the videogame or program, the Employer will notify AFTRA in writing of the actual name of the videogame or program.

12. ADMISSION TO PREMISES

Any authorized representative of AFTRA shall be admitted to the premises of the Employer or where the rehearsal or production of Interactive Programs takes place, at any reasonable time and on reasonable advance notice to check the performance by the Employer pursuant to this Agreement subject to product security or clearance restrictions; such checking shall be done so as not to interfere with the conduct of Employers business.

13. UNION SECURITY

Until and unless the Union Security provisions of the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947, as amended, are repealed or amended so as to permit a stricter Union Security clause, it is agreed that during the term of this Agreement, Employer will employ and maintain in Employer's employ only such Performers covered by this Agreement who are members of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists in good standing or those who shall make application for membership on the thirtieth (30th) day following the beginning of employment hereunder or the date of execution of this Agreement, whichever is later, and thereafter maintain such membership in good standing as a condition of employment. It is understood and agreed that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement will be construed as preventing Employer from hiring non-AFTRA members in accordance with the Taft-Hartley Act to perform in Interactive Programs. For the purpose of this section “good standing” shall mean the payment of uniform initiation fees and periodic dues.

In the event that said Act is repealed or amended so as to permit a stricter Union Security clause, the above provision shall be amended accordingly. The provisions of this paragraph are subject to said Act.

It is understood that it would be impossible to accurately fix the actual damages suffered by AFTRA by reason of a breach by an Employer of the provisions of this Section 13. It is therefore agreed that the Employer will pay to AFTRA, as Liquidated Damages, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) for each breach by the Employer of the provisions of this Section 13. Any breach of the provisions of this Section 13 may be subject to arbitration between AFTRA and the Employer. The hiring by the Employer of a Performer in violation of the provisions hereof shall be deemed a single breach, regardless of the number of days of employment involved in the hiring; but each separate hiring of the same person in violation hereof shall be deemed a separate breach.

14. PREFERENCE OF EMPLOYMENT

- A. In recognition of the services performed by professional Performers, Employer agrees that in the hiring of Weekly Performers, Three-Day Performers, Day Players, Singers, Dancers, Stunt Persons, Puppeteers, and Background Actors employed for the day for work to be performed within the 300-mile, 75-mile or 50-mile zone as the case may be, referred to in Subsection C. of this Section 14 (“Preference Zone”), preference will be given to Qualified Professional Performers in each such Preference Zone who are reasonably and readily available in such zone.
- B. The obligation of the Employer to give preference to Qualified Professional Performers shall require the employment of a Qualified Professional Performer in the hiring of a Performer employed as a Day Player, Weekly and Three-Day Performers, unless no Qualified Professional Performer of the type required is reasonably and readily available to the Employer through the use of the present hiring practices generally and customarily followed by the Interactive Media industry. If a Qualified Professional Performer is reasonably and readily available to the Employer for employment in the locality where the Employer production facility is based, he/she shall be deemed available regardless of the place within the 300-mile, 75-mile or 50-mile Preference Zone, as the case may be, at which the services are to be performed.

- E. Nothing contained in this Section 14 shall alter or modify Employer's exclusive right to cast any and all Performers performing services for Employer.
- F. It is understood that it would be impossible to accurately fix the actual damages suffered by AFTRA by reason of a breach by Employer of the provisions of this Section 14. It is therefore agreed that the Employer will pay to AFTRA, as Liquidated Damages, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) for each breach by the Employer of the provisions of this Section 14. The hiring by Employer of a Performer in violation of the provisions hereof shall be deemed a single breach, regardless of the number of days of employment involved in the hiring; but each separate hiring of the same person in violation hereof shall be deemed a separate breach.
- G. An alleged breach of this Section 14 is subject to arbitration between AFTRA and Employer.

15. PEOPLE COVERED

No services of any Performer are excluded from the scope of this Agreement unless specifically waived by AFTRA; however, excluded from this provision are: (i) instrumental musicians performing as such; (ii) executive officers or key employees of the sponsor delivering institutional messages as that term is understood in the industry; and (iii) skilled technicians when the context of the script requires special understanding and expertise which cannot be realistically portrayed or narrated by the Performer. AFTRA reserves the right to review these exceptions in the event utilization becomes excessive.

16. RIGHTS

- A. In consideration of the Total Applicable Base Compensation paid hereunder, Employer will have the right to exploit the results and proceeds of Principal Performers' services in the Program for which the Performer was employed in all Interactive Media as defined in Section 3.F(i) and, if Employer pays the additional compensation specified in Section 19.C, Employer's rights shall include Cloud Gaming and/or Integration as defined in Section 3.D and 3.F(ii) above. It is understood and agreed that Employer will have all of the foregoing rights, without payment of any additional compensation, with respect to the results and proceeds of the services of Performers who are not Principal Performers.
- B. Employer also will have right, without payment of any additional compensation, to:
 - (i) use Interactive Material for reference, file, private audition purposes, and for customary industry promotional purposes (e.g., at sales conventions and other events within the Interactive and entertainment industries);
 - (ii) use and give publicity to the Performer's name and likeness, photographic or otherwise (including the use of stills and lifts in product packaging and in print) to advertise and promote the applicable Interactive Program, including the use of excerpts of Interactive Programs at point-of-purchase to promote the sales of Interactive Programs.

17. REUSE OF MATERIAL

1. Linear Programs

- A. Employer shall not reuse Interactive Material produced hereunder containing the results and proceeds of a Performer's performance in Linear Program(s) without separately bargaining with the individual Performer appearing therein and reaching an agreement therefor. The foregoing requirements shall be applicable to a Performer only if the Performer is recognizable and to stunts only if the stunt is identifiable, and shall not be applicable to Background Actors
- B. The minimum payable to a Performer for the Reuse of any portion of an Interactive Program in a Linear Program shall be AFTRA Scale for the field in which the Interactive Material is Reused (broadcast television, cable, etc.) in accordance with the applicable AFTRA Code unless compensation for such other use is provided for herein.

AFTRA may, in its discretion, grant waivers of the requirements of this Section 15 with respect to the Reuse of videotape and sound track in public service, educational and like Programs, and will follow a liberal policy in granting such waivers.

- C. If Employer fails to bargain separately with the Performer as provided herein, or if Employer and the Performer bargain but are unable to reach an agreement, consent for such Reuse shall not be deemed to have been given by the Performer. In the case of violation of the foregoing, the Performer shall be entitled to damages for such unauthorized Reuse of his/her performance equivalent to three (3) times the amount originally paid the Performer for the number of days of work covered by the Material actually Reused as well as the minimum fees, if any, applicable to the field in which the Material is exploited (i.e., broadcast television; radio, etc.). In lieu of accepting such damages, however, the Performer may elect to arbitrate the claim as provided hereunder.
- D. If Employer is unable to find a Performer within a reasonable time for the purpose of the bargaining pursuant to this Section 17, Employer shall notify AFTRA within a reasonable period of time to allow AFTRA the opportunity to locate such Performer. If AFTRA thereafter is unable to notify Employer of a telephone number or an address at which the Performer may be contacted within a reasonable time to allow the Employer to comply with deadlines, Employer may Reuse the Material without a breach.

2. Interactive Programs

- A. Employer shall not Reuse Interactive Material produced hereunder containing the results and proceeds of a Performer's performance in another Interactive Program (one for which he/she was not employed) except as set forth in Paragraph 3.D Integration, without separately bargaining with the individual Performer seen or heard therein pursuant to this paragraph and paragraph 1.A. above.

- B. The minimum payable to a Performer for the Reuse of any portion of an Interactive Program in another Interactive Program not covered by Integration, shall be no less than the applicable minimum for such category of Performer.

18. TRAILERS; PROMOTIONS

- A. Employer shall have the right to make (or cause to be made) Trailers and/or Promotional Programs, for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Interactive Program. A Performers services in any such Trailer or a Promotional Program twelve (12) minutes in length shall not require the payment of additional compensation (other than compensation for services, overtime or any compensation otherwise due hereunder) if the recordation of such Trailer or Promotional Program occurs during the Performer’s term of employment in connection with the applicable Interactive Program hereunder. Otherwise, the applicable Scale set forth in this agreement shall be the minimum compensation for services in connection with such Trailers. No additional compensation shall be payable for the use of any portion of an Interactive Program in a Trailer or Promotional Program where such Trailer or Promotional Program is utilized to promote such Interactive Program.

Effective July 1, 2005, each Principal Performer seen or heard in recorded material incorporated from a game into a Promotional Program exceeding twelve (12) minutes in length shall be entitled to no less a single session payment at the applicable day performer minimum for the use of such footage and soundtrack.

- B. No use of a Performer’s services in a Trailer as herein defined may be used as an endorsement of any service or product other than the Interactive Program(s) for which the Performer was employed to render services. References to the hardware, Platforms or Cloud Gaming systems upon which the Interactive Program operates or references to other Interactive Programs shall not be deemed an endorsement of a service or product in violation of this Subsection 18.B if the Interactive Program is clearly identified by its title in such promotion to the consumer.
- C. If any Promotional Program is a Linear Program exhibited or transmitted to the viewer as specified in Section 3.G. ii. (a) - (c), Employer shall pay all recognizable Principal Performers therein an additional payment equal to the Day Player minimum hereunder for such use.

5. A Performer may not record Atmospheric Voices and non-Atmospheric Voices in the same session.
6. The notifications regarding vocal stress and all other relevant terms of the contract shall apply equally to sessions for the recording of Atmospheric Voices.

- A. The parties hereto reaffirm their commitment to a policy of non-discrimination and fair employment in connection with the engagement and treatment of Performers on the basis of sex, race, color, creed, national origin, age or disability, in accordance with applicable state and federal law; no inquiry shall be made with respect to a Performer’s marital status sexual orientation or national origin, creed, age or disability.
- B. Employer shall cast Performers in accordance with the above policy in all types of roles having due regard for the requirements of and the suitability for the role so that, for example, the American scene may be portrayed realistically. To that end, due regard shall be given to women, minorities, Performers with disabilities and seniors in all aspects of society. The parties agree that the Employer shall retain its exclusive creative prerogatives.

In furtherance of the foregoing, the Employer shall make good faith efforts to seek out and provide audition opportunities for women, minorities, Performers with disabilities and seniors in the casting of each production thereby creating fair, equal and non-stereotyped employment opportunities. Employer agrees to provide equal employment opportunities (including auditions) for women and men for Voice-Over roles having due regard for the requirements of and the suitability of such Performers for such roles.

- C. When applicable, and with due regard to the safety of cast, crew and other persons, women and minorities shall be considered for stunt doubling roles and for scripted and unscripted stunts on a functional non-discriminatory basis.

Employer shall make every effort to cast Performers with physical disabilities for scripted and unscripted stunts for which they are qualified and with due regard to safety, in roles portraying their particular disability such as wheelchair stunts or stunts involving the use of other adaptive devices, e.g., crutches, prostheses, etc. Where the stunt Performer doubles for a role which is identifiable as female and/or Black, Latin-Hispanic, Asian-Pacific or Native American and the race and/or sex of the double is also identifiable, Employer shall make every effort to cast qualified persons of the same sex and/or race involved. The Stunt Coordinator shall make every effort to identify and recruit qualified minority and female stunt Performers and stunt Performers with disabilities prior to the commencement of production.

- D. Special Considerations: All facilities under the control of or used on behalf of Employer in connection with the casting or production of Material for Interactive Programs including but not limited to dressing rooms, lodging, studios, locations (where feasible), sets, and transportation and access thereto, shall provide reasonable accommodations for Performers with disabilities and shall be suitable for the special needs and requirements of any Performers whether by reason of age or disability. For any role in which a deaf Performer is sought or cast, Employer shall provide, during the audition or throughout the engagement certified or qualified interpreter(s) for the deaf (i.e. interpreter(s) qualified or certified in sign language or oral interpretation). With regard to Performers who are blind or visually impaired, Employer and such Performers shall make mutually acceptable provisions to make the script and/or sites available to the Performer in advance of auditions.

21. CONTRACTS WITH PERFORMERS

Every contract (whether written or oral) between Employer and any Performer shall be deemed to contain the following clauses:

“Notwithstanding any provision in this contract to the contrary, it is specifically understood and agreed by all parties hereto:

- A. That they are bound by all the terms and provisions of the 2011-2014 AFTRA Interactive Media Agreement.
- B. That should there be any inconsistency between said contract and the Agreement or the valid rules and regulations enacted by AFTRA not in derogation thereof, the Agreement and the rules and regulations of AFTRA shall prevail; but nothing in this provision shall affect terms, compensation or conditions provided for in this contract which are more favorable to Performers than the terms, compensation and conditions provided for in said Agreement.
- C. If the term of this contract is of longer duration than the term of the Agreement between AFTRA and the Employer, this contract shall be modified to conform to any agreements or modifications negotiated or agreed to in said Agreement, and the existence of this contract shall not prevent the Performer from engaging in any strike or obeying any of the lawful rules and regulations of AFTRA without penalty by way of damage or otherwise, subject to mutual cancellation or termination of this contract without penalty on either side.
- D. Performer represents and warrants that he/she is a member of AFTRA in good standing subject to and in accordance with Section 13 of this Article I and is subject to the rules and regulations of AFTRA.
- E. That the Performer is covered by the provisions governing the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds.

F. All disputes and controversies of every kind and nature arising out of or in connection with this contract shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the procedure and provisions of said "Agreement."

22. EXISTING CONTRACTS

The parties acknowledge that existing contracts between Performers and Employer entered into prior to the date of execution of this Agreement shall not be subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

23. INDIVIDUAL CONTRACTS

Except as otherwise herein expressly provided (including without limitation in Section 22 above), the minimum terms and conditions hereof shall be deemed incorporated into all individual contracts of employment in effect on the effective date hereof or thereafter executed, with respect to all services rendered on or after such effective date.

24. MINIMUM SCALE/TERMS

Employer agrees that it will make no contract with any Performer at terms less favorable to such Performer than those contained in this Agreement, and no waiver of any of the terms hereof shall be effective without the written consent of AFTRA. All Performers, whether employed at Scale or in excess of the minimum rates set forth herein, shall have the protection and benefits of the provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Nothing herein shall prevent an individual Performer from bargaining for more favorable terms and conditions in his/her individual contract than those accorded Performers hereunder.

25. PROHIBITION AGAINST CREDITING

No compensation paid to a Performer for his/her services in excess of the minimum may be credited against Overtime, Liquidated Damages or any other compensation otherwise due the Performer, however, nothing herein shall prevent Employer from bargaining with the Performer to allocate compensation payable to a Performer (other than Overtime and Liquidated Damages) which is greater than 200% of Scale to sums which may be otherwise due the Performer hereunder provided that the right to allocate is specifically set forth in the Performer employment agreement.

26. AFTRA MEMBER REPORTS; PERFORMER CONTRACTS

Employer shall have the option of utilizing AFTRA Member Reports at the time of hiring of Principal Performers and/or Background Actors in connection with Interactive Programs on a form similar to that attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A and incorporated herein, or to employ the same pursuant to individual contracts in forms approved by AFTRA. If Employer utilizes such Member Reports, it will be the duty and responsibility of each Performer to deliver a form initialed by the Employer to the local AFTRA office.

If Employer does not utilize Member Reports, Employer shall employ Scale Performers pursuant to individual contracts on a form approved by AFTRA (attached hereto as Exhibit C to this Agreement) which guarantees the Performers the minimum terms and conditions of this Agreement. No changes, alterations or additions may be made in such form except such changes as are more favorable to the Performer and as to which changes both Performer and Employer have given written approval on the contract. Copies of all such employment contracts shall be filed with the appropriate AFTRA office.

27. EVASION OF RESPONSIBILITY

Employer agrees that Employer will not knowingly, for the purpose of evading performance under this Agreement:

1. sublet or transfer responsibility hereunder to any third person;
2. transfer operations to any other place of origin or territory solely for the purpose of defeating or evading this Agreement;
3. use, lease or authorize others to use material for Interactive Media for any purpose or in any manner other than as permitted by this Agreement; or
4. use the terms of this Agreement for the purpose of defeating or evading the terms and conditions of the AFTRA National Code of Fair Practice for Commercial Radio Broadcasting, the AFTRA National Sustaining Radio Agreement, the AFTRA National Code of Fair Practice for Network Television Broadcasting, the AFTRA National Code of Fair Practice for Non-Broadcast/Industrial/Educational Recorded Material, or the AFTRA Television or Radio Recorded Commercials Contracts, as presently applied.

28. WAIVERS

AFTRA recognizes that the production, distribution and exhibition of Programs in Interactive Media is in its formative stages, and there may be uses of a nature not contemplated at the time the parties enter into this Agreement. AFTRA agrees to consider any special circumstances which warrant modification of any of the terms of this Agreement and to grant waivers to accommodate such productions, which waivers shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any request by an Employer for consideration for changes or waiver by AFTRA hereunder must be made in writing by advance notice to AFTRA to afford sufficient time to give proper consideration to such request. The parties acknowledge that fifteen (15) business days notice prior to the scheduled production of any Interactive Program shall be deemed sufficient time for purposes of evaluating such request.

29. WAIVER OF RIGHTS BY MEMBERS

The acceptance of consideration by a member of AFTRA under this Agreement shall not be deemed sufficient consideration to effect a waiver, release or discharge by such AFTRA member of such AFTRA member's contractual rights under this or any other AFTRA agreement. Releases, discharges, notations on checks, cancellations, etc., and similar devices which may operate as waivers or releases shall be null and void to the extent provided for above without AFTRA's prior written approval.

30. PRODUCTION STAFF

- A. Employer shall not utilize persons employed as members of Employer’s casting or production staff as Performers in any Program on which they also render any services on an Interactive Program without the express consent of AFTRA, however, AFTRA shall grant waivers on a reasonable basis in good faith to accommodate the legitimate production necessities of Employer.
- B. The following are exceptions to the above:
 - 1. Animal handlers (appearing in a scene in which they handle animals);
 - 2. Actor/directors, actor/writers, or actor/employers engaged by written contract prior to the commencement of Principal Photography of the Program;

Weekly Performer	$600.00

Performers shall be paid not less than the minimum applicable fees due hereunder, in the legal tender of the United States not later than twelve (12) business days after services have been rendered. B. Liquidated Damages for Late Payment

The following cumulative payments shall be added to the compensation due and payable to the Performer for each day, beginning with the day following the day of default: Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) for each day’s delinquency up to thirty (30) days (excluding Saturday, Sunday, and holidays which the Employer observes). Thereafter, the Liquidated Damages payment shall cease unless either AFTRA or the Performer gives written notice to the Employer of the non-payment. In the event such notice is given and full payment including accrued Liquidated Damages is not made within twelve (12) working days thereafter, the Employer shall be liable for an immediate Liquidated Damages of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) plus further Liquidated Damages payments at the rate of Five Dollars ($5.00) per day from the date of receipt of notice of non-payment which shall continue without limitation as to time until the delinquent payment together

The above cumulative payments shall not apply in the following case:

1. Where a bona fide dispute exists as to the amount due and payable concerning which AFTRA has been notified promptly;
2. When an event of Force Majeure (as such term is generally understood, and not in the more limited sense in which the term is defined for other purposes in Section 45 below) intervenes;

5. Where the Performer, having been furnished his/her contract on or before the day of his/her performance, fails to return the signed engagement contract promptly.

C. All Fees are Net

The minimum fees specified in this Agreement shall be net to the Performer. No deductions whatsoever may be made by Employer from Performers compensation except for deductions and withholding that are required by law, including but not limited to the Social Security and withholding taxes as specified below.

32. SOCIAL SECURITY, WITHHOLDING, UNEMPLOYMENT AND DISABILITY INSURANCE TAXES

Employer and any others who assume the obligation to make such payment shall also make the required payments, reports and withholdings with respect to such taxes.

Employers must honor a Performer's request that taxes be withheld over a longer payroll period (i.e., by a more favorable tax withholding schedule) to the extent Employer can do so without incurring liability therefrom as determined by Employer in accordance with its standard and customary practices. Employer shall attach appropriate forms for this purpose to Performer contract.

A W-4 form or an alternative form with appropriate IRS tax information for withholding purposes will be included in the standard union employment contract form.

33. SAFEGUARDS AGAINST VIOLATION

Employer shall furnish AFTRA written reports, under the same cover as checks for Performers' services, specifying: the details relevant to the Interactive Program produced; time of the production sessions; the title of the Interactive Program; names of Performers; complete time in rehearsal and video taping; gross fees payable to Performers. Standard form reports shall be promulgated by AFTRA by agreement with representatives of the Interactive industry.

No Producer shall be obligated to make H&R contributions on behalf of any individual performer on gross compensation in excess of $125,000 for covered services paid by that Producer per game franchise in a calendar year.

The aforesaid sum shall be used solely:

- (b) For the purpose of providing welfare benefits for eligible Performers under this Agreement, and at the discretion of the Trustees, for their families; and
- (c) For the incidental expenses connected with the establishment and administration of the AFTRA H&R Funds.

The aforesaid sum may also be used to provide occupational disability benefits to Performers who suffer disability arising out of or in the course of employment in rendering services within the jurisdiction of AFTRA. The Trustees of the AFTRA H&R Funds are directed to continue such benefits to Performers, whether or not eligible for other benefits of the AFTRA H&R Funds, so long as the Trustees determine in their discretion that such benefits can be provided to such Performers without impairing the financial capacity of the AFTRA H&R Funds to continue or expand the existing plan of benefits.

- B. The parties agree that the AFTRA H&R Funds shall be Trust Funds and shall be administered under the AFTRA Pension and Welfare Funds Agreement and Declaration of Trust, dated November 16, 1954, as Amended.
- C. Employer and AFTRA hereby ratify and confirm the action of the Trustees of the AFTRA H&R Funds in amending the existing Agreement and Declaration of Trust, dated November 16, 1954, to provide coverage for the benefit of AFTRA employees and employees of the AFTRA H&R Funds upon terms and conditions established by the Trustees. The Trustees of the Plans shall be authorized to allocate contributions made hereunder between the Health Fund and the Retirement Fund in amounts (expressed in dollars or percentages) that they may consider necessary and appropriate.
- D. Employer shall furnish the Trustees the information pertaining to the names, job classifications, social security numbers and wage information, as may be reasonably required, for the proposed low cost and efficient administration of the AFTRA H&R Funds. Employer agrees to furnish a remittance report and to pay to the appropriate AFTRA H&R Funds office the contribution specified above in Subsection 34.A not later than twelve (12) business days (or a later date if agreed to by AFTRA) after the date payments are due as set forth above.
- E. These provisions of the AFTRA H&R Funds are in addition to (and not in substitution in whole or in part for) any existing pension and/or welfare funds covering any of the Performers under this Agreement; and no Performer shall lose, in whole or in part, any of his/her rights or privileges under such other pension and/or welfare funds by virtue of receiving or being entitled to receive benefits under the AFTRA H&R Funds; nor may any payment, rights or privilege available to a Performer under the AFTRA H&R Funds be credited to any payment, rights or privilege under any other pension and/or welfare funds and vice versa.
- F. No part of the Employers contributions for the Performer's benefits from the AFTRA H&R Funds (i) may be credited against the Performer's Overscale compensation or against any other benefits or emoluments whatsoever that they may be entitled to, no matter what form such other benefits or emoluments may take; or (ii) are subject to any agency commission or other deduction.
- G. With respect to any contract with a Loan-Out Company for the services of a Performer payments into the AFTRA H&R Funds (hereafter "Contributions") shall be governed by the following:
1. In its contract with the Loan-Out Company, Employer shall state separately the compensation applicable to services covered by the Agreement.
 2. If other than AFTRA-covered services are involved and an amount is allocated to such other services, the Employer shall notify AFTRA of the amount allocated to the AFTRA-covered services. If AFTRA disputes the amount allocated to the AFTRA-covered services, the parties will discuss what the appropriate allocation of such compensation shall be, giving substantial consideration in resolving the dispute to the Performer's "customary compensation". If, after such discussions, AFTRA does not agree on the appropriate allocation, then either party may submit the matter, as it relates to the Contributions only, to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

3. Contributions shall be based on the amount the Employer pays the Loan-Out Company for furnishing the Performer's AFTRA-covered services.
 4. The Employer shall have the obligation to make the contributions directly to the AFTRA H&R Funds, whether a contract for Performers services is with the Performer or with the Performer's Loan-Out Company.
 5. If, prior to the date on which Employer assumed the obligation to make the Contributions directly to the AFTRA H&R Funds, a Loan-Out Company has failed to make the applicable health and retirement contributions on behalf of the loan-out Performer pursuant to the provisions of any applicable AFTRA agreement, Employer shall not be liable for such Contributions.
- H. Claims against the Employer for AFTRA Health and Retirement Contributions on behalf of Performers borrowed from a Loan-Out Company, or claims against the Employer on behalf of Performers employed directly by the Employer, must be brought within two (2) years from the date of mailing of the compensation remittance report covering such Performers. Any claim for Contributions not brought within the two-(2) year period referred shall be barred.
- I. Wherever the phrase "Agreement and Declaration of Trust" is used in this Agreement, the Trustees shall have the right in their discretion to construe said phrase to also mean the plural.

35. RIGHT TO RESPECT PICKET LINES

The Employer will not discriminate against any individual AFTRA Performers for refusal to cross a lawful picket line which is established at the premises of Employer as the result of a lawful strike, authorized by responsible AFTRA officers having the right to do so (at the appropriate local or national level).

36. SEPARABILITY

If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, shall be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this Agreement or the application thereof to any other person or circumstances, but shall be conflicted in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered and to the person or circumstances involved. It is hereby declared to be the intent that this Agreement would have been accepted even if such invalid provision had not been included.

37. PRODUCTION PROSECUTED

In the event that the Material in which the Performer has performed hereunder is the subject of any civil or criminal prosecution, Employer agrees to defend the Performer and to pay all reasonable documented expenses, charges and judgments so incurred. This Section does not apply to a case where the prosecution results from Material furnished by the Performer or acts done by the Performer without authorization of the Employer or beyond the scope of his/her employment.

38. NO STRIKE - NO LOCKOUT

So long as the Employer performs this Agreement, AFTRA will not strike against the Employer as to Performers covered by this Agreement in the field covered by this Agreement. To the extent AFTRA has agreed not to strike, it will order its members to perform their contracts with the Employer. This and the following paragraph shall apply only to Employers who sign this Agreement. Employer and AFTRA agree that there will be no stoppage of work pending any arbitration and award, and the parties agree that all judgments rendered pursuant to arbitration brought in accordance with the procedures specified hereunder will be binding upon them.

39. TRANSFER OF RIGHTS - ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT

Upon the sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition by Employer of any Program produced by it hereunder, the Employer shall not be responsible to AFTRA or to any AFTRA members for any payments thereafter due with respect to the use of such Programs or for a breach or violation of this Agreement by such transferee, if AFTRA approves the financial responsibility of such transferee in writing (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), and if the Employer in its agreement with such transferee has included a provision substantially in the following form:

“ _____ ” (“Transferee”) hereby agrees with _____ (“Employer”) that all Programs covered by this agreement are subject to the 2011-2014 AFTRA Interactive Media Agreement. Transferee hereby agrees expressly for the benefit of AFTRA and its members affected thereby to make all payments of fees as provided in said Agreement and all Social Security, withholding, unemployment insurance and disability insurance payments and all appropriate contributions to the AFTRA H&R Funds required under the provisions of said Agreement with respect to any and all such payments and to comply with the provision of said Agreement with respect to the use of such Program and required records and reports. It is expressly understood and agreed that the rights of Transferee to use such Program shall be subject to and conditioned upon the prompt payment to the Performers involved of all compensation as provided in said Agreement, and AFTRA, on behalf of the Performers involved, shall be entitled to injunctive relief in the event such payments are not made.”

The Employer agrees to give written notice by mail to AFTRA of each sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition of any Program which is subject to this Agreement within thirty (30) days after the consummation of each sale, etc., and such notice shall specify the name and address of the purchaser, transferee or assignee.

40. UNION STANDARDS

A. Employer will neither engage in the production of an Interactive Program or any part thereof as to which one or more Performers are employed by a person not a signatory to this Agreement or a Letter of Adherence herein (a “non-signatory”), nor acquire an Interactive Program or any part thereof as to which one or more Performers were employed by a non-signatory unless, in each case, the Employer determines after reasonable investigation that such Performers have been and will be either (1) afforded the wages, hours, working conditions and other economic benefits provided in this Agreement; or (2) afforded wages hours, working conditions and other economic benefits having substantially equivalent economic cost to such non-signatory. The Employer shall upon written request from AFTRA, report to AFTRA the name of such non-signatory, the number of Programs to be recorded and other pertinent data to enable AFTRA to administer this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, this Section 40 shall not apply to Interactive Programs or any part thereof: (i) which exist prior to the execution of this Agreement, or (ii) have not been acquired by Employer in an effort to subvert the intent of this Agreement; provided that AFTRA reserves the right to reasonably inquire about such acquisitions to determine both their frequency and Employer’s intent.

B. If the Employer obtains an agreement substantially in the form below from such non-signatory, Employer shall be deemed to have observed the provisions of Subsection 40.A:

It is hereby agreed by _____ [Name of Non-Signatory Employer] that all Performers as defined in the AFTRA 2011-2014 AFTRA Interactive Media Agreement be afforded either (1) the wages, hours, working conditions and other economic benefits provided in said Agreement; or (2) wages, hours, working conditions and other economic benefits having a substantially equivalent economic cost to

[Name of Non Signatory Employer].”

C. AFTRA reserves the right, pursuant to Section 41 to submit to arbitration Employer’s failure to observe the provisions of Subsection 40.A, as herein amended, unless such failure is isolated or inadvertent.

41. ARBITRATION

In the event of any controversy or dispute arising with respect to this Agreement or the interpretation or breach thereof between AFTRA and the Employer or a Performer and the Employer, AFTRA and the Employer agree, in good faith, promptly to attempt to settle such dispute amicably by conciliation. In the event that they are unable to do so, any such controversy or dispute shall be settled in accordance with the Voluntary Labor Arbitration Rules then prevailing of the American Arbitration Association located with the State of California by a single Arbitrator chosen in accordance with such rules and as specified below.

A. Conciliation Procedures:

1. Whenever any dispute arises which is arbitrable under this Agreement, a representative of AFTRA and a representative of Employer shall meet within ten (10) business days after a request is made in writing (or, if the parties' schedules do not permit a meeting within such time period, as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable), for conciliation by either party to the other. The filing of a formal claim by AFTRA or Employer for arbitration shall be deemed an automatic request for prior conciliation. If the parties are not able to reach agreement by conciliation after such good faith attempts, a claim for arbitration may be filed. Claims for arbitration hereunder shall be filed not later than the later of:
(i) six (6) months after the occurrence of the facts upon which the claim is based; or
(ii) within six (6) months after the Performer or the Union, or the Employer, as the case may be, has had a reasonable opportunity to become aware of the occurrence. Otherwise, such claims shall be deemed waived.
2. The time period for filing claims shall be tolled while conciliation discussions are taking place between the Employer and AFTRA, and/or the Employer and a Performer's agent or representative, as the case may be.

B. Arbitration:

1. If the parties fail to settle the dispute by conciliation or if one party fails or refuses to meet after a request for conciliation, then either AFTRA or Employer may deliver to the other a written demand for arbitration setting forth the material facts concerning the dispute. The demand for arbitration shall be served upon the other party by first class mail addressed to the representative of AFTRA or the Employer designated to receive such service at such party's last known address or by personal service within the state where the proceeding is to take place. A request for arbitration shall be filed with the American Arbitration Association office in a locale within the Preference Zone in which the Employer has its primary place of business.
2. The arbitrator shall be selected within fifteen (15) days of the date the arbitration demand is served in accordance with the procedures of the American Arbitration Association in effect at such time. The arbitration hearing will be commenced within sixty (60) days of the date that the arbitrator is selected. The arbitration award will be issued within thirty (30) days of the date of submission. All time periods herein may be extended in any particular case upon the written agreement of the parties.
3. All arbitrations hereunder which are not instituted by Employer, shall be brought by and in the name of AFTRA, whether such arbitration is on its own behalf or on behalf of a Performer and, in the latter case, AFTRA may, but shall not be required to, represent the Performer. AFTRA may, however, in its discretion, permit a Performer to bring an arbitration in the name of the Performer. It shall, however, be solely within the discretion of AFTRA whether a claim of a Performer shall be brought to arbitration.

4. The cost and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by AFTRA and the Employer.
5. The award of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all parties to the proceeding and judgment upon such award may be entered by any party in the highest court of the forum, state or federal, of competent jurisdiction.
6. AFTRA shall be an ex officio party for all arbitration proceedings hereunder in which any Performer is involved, and AFTRA may do anything which a Performer named in such proceedings might do. Copies of all notices, demands and other papers filed by any party in arbitration proceedings, and copies of all motions, actions or proceedings in court following the award shall be promptly filed with AFTRA. AFTRA agrees to aid the enforcement of awards against its members by appropriate disciplinary action.
7. AFTRA agrees that there will be no stoppage of work during an arbitration or prior to the rendition of the award.
8. Disputes involving or relating to injunctive relief are not arbitrable hereunder.

42. RIGHT TO TERMINATE; UNFAIR LIST

Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the right of AFTRA to terminate this Agreement, (on reasonable notice, taking into account in particular any production already underway or about to begin at such time), and declare an Employer unfair when such Employer, knowingly and intentionally, breaches its obligation under the Agreement such as, by way of examples and not by way of limitation, where an Employer fails to pay compensation owing to Performers employed by it where there is no bona fide controversy arising out of employment under the Agreement. This provision only has effect when Employer refuses to arbitrate or refuses to recognize arbitrators decision.

43. NOTICES TO PERFORMERS

All notices which the Employer desires or is required to send a Performer shall be sent to not more than two (2) addresses which the Performer may designate, one of which shall be the address which Performer designates for the sending of payments on his or her standard employment contract. The standard form contract shall provide a place for inserting the address to which notices shall be sent to Performer and Employer. Performer and Employer shall notify the other in writing of any changes in address from those specified on the standard employment contract.

44. MOST FAVORED NATIONS

AFTRA shall not enter into any agreement applicable to Interactive Media which grants an employer greater rights, less onerous working conditions or more favorable payment or other terms or conditions than those accorded Employer hereunder without offering the same to Employer.

45. FORCE MAJEURE

If a production for which the Performer is engaged is necessarily prevented, suspended or postponed during the course thereof, by reason of fire, accident, strike, riot, act of God, or the public enemy, or by any executive or judicial order or by reason of the illness of any other member of the cast or of the director (herein an event of "Force Majeure"), the following provisions shall apply:

- A. Day Players: Employer shall have the right to terminate the services of Day Players without further liability, except for compensation for services previously rendered provided however, that: (i) if such termination occurs before the Performer is used or (ii) if the Performer is subsequently replaced (other than because of his/her unavailability), the Performer shall be entitled to one days salary in addition to compensation for services previously rendered. Employer shall have the right to recall the Performer after such termination without compensation for intervening time, when production is resumed at the same rate as that previously applicable, subject to the Performer's professional availability.
- B. Three-Day and Weekly Performers: Employer has the right to suspend Performers' services and place Performers on one-half (1/2) salary during the period of Force Majeure, subject to the Employer's right to terminate the Performer's employment at any time during the event of Force Majeure. The Weekly Performer shall have the right to terminate employment effective at the end of the third week of suspension at half-salary or, in the case of a Three-Day Performer, effective at the end of the second week of suspension at half salary, or at any time thereafter unless the Employer commences and continues thereafter to pay Performer his/her full compensation upon receipt of Performer's notice of termination.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time after the commencement of an event of Force Majeure and prior to any resumption by the Performer of his/her services, the Employer may terminate the services of the Performer without further liability except for compensation for services previously rendered. Employer shall have the right at any time during the next three (3) weeks (or, in the case of a Three-Day Performer, after two (2) weeks), to recall the Performer without compensation for intervening time at the same rate as that specified in the Performers contract, subject only to the Performer's professional availability.

- C. Any guaranteed employment hereunder may be extended by the period of any suspension for Force Majeure hereunder by giving written notice to such effect not later than the date of resumption of production following such suspension.

46. ADMINISTRATION OF AGREEMENT

The Parties will establish a joint committee to meet periodically to review and address areas of contract administration and/or interpretation during the term of the AFTRA Interactive Media Agreement.

47. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement represents the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all previous agreements, written or oral, which may have been entered into prior to the date of execution hereof. This Agreement shall not be altered except by written agreement executed by both parties hereto.

ARTICLE II - WORKING CONDITIONS - Principal Performers

1. CASTING AND AUDITIONS

- A. If Performers are requested to audition prior to an engagement, Employer shall provide the Performer (or his/her representatives) comprehensive information regarding the audition such as a specific time therefor, the nature of the role(s) available (whether Day Player, Three-Day Performer, etc.), the nature of the performance desired and any unusual working conditions (work involving animals, stunts, hazards, improvisations or nudity). An ample supply of segments of the script (“sides”) and/or storyboards for the particular role(s) which are the subject of the audition shall be available at the location of the audition at the time of the Performers’ sign-in. Cue cards may be used by Employer instead of sides or storyboards if Employer determines that script Material must be kept confidential.
- B. If, at either a first or second audition, the Performer is required to remain for more than one (1) hour from the time of call or arrival, whichever is later, he/she shall be compensated for all time on said call in excess of one (1) hour, at straight time, in one-half (1/2) hour units, at the rate of 1/16 of the Day Player rate. For the third and each subsequent audition, the Performer shall be paid a minimum of 1/8 of the Day Player rate. For all time in excess of one (1) hour, the Performer shall be paid at straight time in one-half (1) hour units, at a rate of 1/16 of the Day Player rate per unit. Health and Retirement contributions shall be paid on all compensation payable to the Performer hereunder for the third and all subsequent audition calls. If the Performer is required to memorize lines for an audition which he/she has been given to learn outside the studio, he/she shall be compensated at one (1) hour of straight time or actual time required for such audition, whichever is greater. If there has been no agreed salary before the auditions, and if the Performer and Employer cannot agree, the salary rate at which he/she shall be compensated for such excess time shall be 1/16 of the Day Player rate.
- C. Auditions shall be conducted before Employer and authorized representatives thereof and not in public; mass auditions shall be prohibited. If an audition is recorded, it is agreed that such audition Material shall be used only to determine the suitability of a Performer for a specific project.
- D. Adequate seating shall be provided at all auditions.

2. CONSECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT

- A. Employment of Principal Performers employed on a Three-Day or Weekly basis hereunder shall be for consecutive days from the beginning of the engagement. In the event of a recall, Employer shall pay for intervening time, unless a firm booking date was given at the time of the engagement, and agreed to by the Performer.
- B. The requirement, (unless otherwise agreed by Performer), of paid consecutive employment is not applicable to: Day Players, provided firm advance booking dates are given by Employer; Background Actors (who are subject to the call back provisions of Article III, Section 9); and Singers.

- C. Any Principal Performer who has been recalled to render services (other than Retakes, Added Scenes, Etc.) and completes such services, and is then later required for additional Principal Photography (“spillover”) by Employer, such spillover services shall be rendered to Employer on a first-call basis on the same terms and conditions as the original employment (except for the term), subject to the Performer’s professional availability.
- D. The Employer may not agree with any Singer that the Singer will hold himself/herself available for any day after the termination of an original period of employment (which may be as short as one day) unless the Employer agrees at the same time to employ the Singer for such day. It is agreed, however, that the Singer may be recalled by the Employer and will report, at any time prior to the completion of production of the Interactive Program for which he/she was originally employed on the same terms and conditions (except for the term), provided that he/she is not then otherwise professionally employed.

3. RETAKES, ADDED SCENES, ETC.

- A. Compensation for the Retakes, Added Scenes, Etc. of a Performer shall be paid only for the days on which the Performer is actually so engaged. If such Retakes, Added Scenes, Etc. are commenced within three (3) months after the prior termination of employment Performers may be recalled to loop or make close-ups at 1/2 day’s pay pro-rata (1/6 for a Three-Day or 1/10 for a Weekly Performer) for a four (4) hour session. If the session exceeds four (4) hours, a full day’s pro-rata compensation (1/3 of the Three-Day or 1/5 of the Performer’s Weekly base rate) shall be payable at the daily rate originally agreed upon except in case of conversion from Day Player to a Three-Day or Weekly Performer, in which event the compensation shall be pro-rated on the Three-Day or Weekly rate originally agreed upon. For Off-Camera Performers such 1/2 day’s pay pro-rata shall include a two (2) hour session. If such session exceeds two (2) hours, a full day’s pro-rata compensation shall be payable at the daily rate originally agreed upon.
- B. Close-ups: AFTRA will freely grant waivers of consecutive employment (if applicable) for the making of close-ups after the completion of Principal Photography of the Program so that the Performer shall be paid only for the day or days upon which he/she renders such services.
- C. This provision shall not be used to introduce a new character or role.

4. CONVERSION OF DAY PLAYERS

Employer shall have the right to convert the engagement of a Day Player to a Three-Day or Weekly Performer at any time, but such conversion shall commence not earlier than the date Employer gives such Performer (or his/her representative) written notice of such conversion in person or by telegraphing or mailing the same to the address furnished the Employer by the Performer. If the notice is delivered personally to the Performer by noon, or if a telegraphic or facsimile notice is delivered to the office transmitting such message by noon, then the conversion shall be effective commencing with that day. If notice delivered personally to the Performer or to the telegraph after noon, or if sent by mail, then in each of the instances as mentioned the conversion shall be effective on the Performers next work day.

5. WORK TIME - DEFINITION AND EXCEPTIONS

- A. For the purpose of ascertaining and computing hours of work, the rest period and Overtime, the period from the time the Performer is required to report to work by Employer “Call” and does actually report ready, willing and able to work without interruption, until the time such Performer is finally dismissed for the day, shall constitute work time, except as follows:
1. Allowable meal periods, as provided by Section 14;
 2. Casting or audition calls, as provided by Section I;
 3. Fittings, as provided by Section 10;
 4. Story, song and production conferences, as provided by Section 15;
 5. Study of lines or scripts, as provided by Section 16;
 6. Publicity interviews and stills, as provided by Section 17;
 7. Fittings, Wardrobe Tests and Makeup Tests, as provided by Sections 10 and 11; or
 8. Travel time, to the extent provided by Section 29.
- B. After the starting date of employment, none of the events referenced in Subsection 5.A. above shall break the consecutive employment of such Performer.
- C. Any period during which the Performer fails, refuses, or is unable because of disability to render services, and any period during which the Performer at his/her own request is excused from rendering services, shall not be work time for any purpose.

6. OVERTIME

- A. On-Camera Performers: For the purpose of computing Overtime, a Performer’s day is computed from the time of first Call to dismissal, excluding meal periods. Overtime payments for all On-Camera Performers shall begin with the ninth hour of any given day; the ninth and tenth hours shall be paid at time and one-half; the eleventh hour and beyond shall be paid at double-time. If the Performer is working at midnight of any day, then his/her hours of work for such day shall be computed until the Performer has been dismissed subsequent to midnight.
- B. Off-Camera (Voice-Over) Performers: Voice-over performers may be engaged based on either a four (4) hour day or a six (6) hour day.

1. A performer engaged for a four (4) hour day shall be entitled to overtime equal to time and one-half for the fifth and sixth hours and double time for any hours in excess of six (6).
2. A performer engaged for a six (6) hour day shall be entitled to overtime equal to time and one-half for the seventh and eighth hours and double time for any hours in excess of eight (8).

Overtime rates are calculated by dividing the day rate by the number of hours allocated.

C. Rate Maximums:

1. Day Players compensated more than $1,673.02 ($1,706.48 effective 5/1/13) per day are payable for work beyond eight (8) hours (or beyond four [4] hours for a four [4] hour day or beyond six [6] hours for a six [6] hour day) based on the rate of $3,446.25 ($3,515.20 effective 5/1/13).
2. Three-Day Performers compensated more than $4,356.40 ($4,443.55 effective 5/1/13) are payable for work beyond eight (8) hours.
3. Weekly Performers compensated more than $5,803.90 ($5,920.00 effective 5/1/13) per week are payable for work beyond eight (8) hours.

D. Payment of Overtime shall not be deemed to reduce a Performer's guaranteed employment or compensation. Except as otherwise herein provided in Sections 10 and 11, makeup, hairdress, wardrobe or fittings shall be considered work time for all purposes including Overtime.

7. ENGAGEMENT; NON-USE OF SERVICES AFTER ENGAGEMENT

A. A Performer shall be considered definitely engaged by an Employer in any of the following events:

1. When the Performer is given written notice of acceptance by the Employer;
2. When a form contract signed by the Employer is delivered to a Performer;
3. When a form contract unsigned by the Employer is delivered to a Performer and is executed by Performer and returned to Employer within 48 hours;
4. When the Performer is fitted; however, this shall not apply to wardrobe tests;
5. When the Performer is given a verbal call which the player accepts; or
6. When a Day Player is given oral notice by the Employer and agrees to report on the commencement date for which the Call is given; however, until noon of the day preceding such commencement date, either the Employer or the Performer may cancel such employment. If the Employer is unable to reach the Performer personally, either by telephone or otherwise, notice of such cancellation may be given to the Performer by telegraph or fax in which event the time when such telegraph is given by the Employer to the telegraph company, addressed to the Performer at his/her address or sent via facsimile at the appropriate fax number last known to the Employer, shall be the time of such cancellation.

- B. Neither auditions nor interviews shall constitute an engagement.
- C. When a Performer is engaged and not used for any reasons other than his/her default, illness or other incapacity, he/she shall be entitled to a day's pay or his/her guarantee, whichever is greater. If the Performer who is selected is unavailable when called to render actual services, he/she shall not be entitled to a days pay.
- D. A Performer who is replaced in a production after commencement of his/her services pursuant to his/her engagement and before the completion of the engagement, for reasons other than his/her default, illness or other incapacity, shall receive his/her guarantee, or a day's pay in addition to payment for services rendered to that time, whichever is greater.
- E. A Performer shall be notified by Employer at the time of engagement whether the engagement requires overnight location work and, if so, the approximate time and duration of such location work to the extent such information is then known.

8. PROMPTING DEVICES; DESCRIPTION OF ROLE; SCRIPTS

- A. A full and forthright description of the role to be played must be given at the time of audition or interview or, if none, at the time of booking. Such description should include length of Performer's role, use of unusual terminology, whether memorization is required, whether cue cards or other prompting devices will be used.
- B. When an On-Camera Performer is required to deliver unusual terminology, Employer will make every effort to have a prompting device or cue cards. If the script is not made available to the On-Camera Performer at least 24 hours prior to the shooting date, Employer must have cue cards or a prompting device to the extent such items are needed.
- C. If the Performer's services will include development of a script through so called "ad-lib" work or substantial embellishment of an existing script through such work, Employer must so inform Performer or Performers representative at the time of audition or interview.

9. ADVANCE INFORMATION; NOTICE OF SERVICES

Employer shall inform a Performer (or his/her representative) at the time of audition or interview for a job, or at the time of hiring (if there is no audition or interview), whether the employment is to be as a Principal Performer, Background Actor or otherwise.

Effective July 1, 2005, at the time an offer of employment is extended to a performer, the Employer shall notify the performer or his or her agent of the general nature of the work involved and whether voice-matching or vocally stressful work is contemplated.

Commencing January 1, 2010, Producers who do not provide notice of vocally stressful work shall pay liquidated damages of $100 for each failure to provide a notice of vocally stressful work.

AFTRA and representatives of the Producers shall meet and confer beginning on or before December 31, 2009 to develop agreed-upon guidelines for conducting vocally stressful work. Thereafter, AFTRA and the Producers shall utilize best efforts to educate voice performers and directors regarding the guidelines and encourage compliance with them.

10. FITTINGS, WARDROBE TESTS, AND MAKEUP TESTS

A. Fittings: Time spent by a Performer in fittings shall be paid as follows:

1. Fittings on the same day that the Performer works:
 - a. Time spent in such fittings shall be work time and part of the Performer's continuous day, the same as wardrobe.
 - b. If four (4) hours or more intervene between the end of the fitting call and the beginning of the work call and the Performer is dismissed in the interim, the fitting shall be paid for as though it were on a prior day on which the Performer did not work (as described below).
2. Fittings on a day prior to work:
 - a. Day Player: Where a Day Player is fitted on a day prior to the day on which he/she works, he/she shall be entitled to one (1) hour minimum pay for each Call. Additional time shall be paid for in fifteen (15) minute units. Day Players receiving more than two times Scale per day shall not be entitled to any compensation for such fittings.
 - b. Three-Day Performers: Employer shall be entitled to two (2) hours free fitting time. Additional fitting time shall be payable at the compensation rate specified in the Performer's contract, in fifteen (15) minute units, with a one (1) hour minimum Call.
 - c. Weekly Performers: Employer shall be entitled to four (4) hours free fitting time on two (2) days for each week the Performer works on the Program. Additional fitting time shall be payable at the compensation rate specified in the Performer's contract, in fifteen (15) minute units, with a one (1) hour minimum call period.
3. A Call to determine whether a Performer's own wardrobe is appropriate shall be deemed a "fitting" covered by the provisions of this Section 10.

B. Wardrobe and Makeup Tests

1. If a Performer is given a makeup or wardrobe test and not used in the Program for which he/she was tested, he/she shall receive one-half (1/2) day' pay at Scale for each day on which he/she is given such tests.
2. If a Performer is given a makeup or wardrobe test and is used in the Program for which he/she was tested, he/she shall be paid as follows:
 - a. Tests on the same day that the Performer works: Time spent in such tests shall be work time and part of the Performer' continuous day (the same as fittings).
 - b. Test on a day prior to work: Where a Day Player is given a makeup or wardrobe test on a day prior to the day on which he/she works, he/she shall be entitled to one (1) hour minimum pay for each Call. Additional time shall be paid for in fifteen (15) minute units. Day Player receiving more than two times Scale per day shall not be entitled to any compensation for such tests.
3. Employer shall be entitled to one (1) day's free fitting time for a test of each Three-Day or Weekly Performer on the Program. The Performer shall be entitled to a half-day's pay, pro-rata for each additional day tested in excess of such free time.

11. MAKEUP, HAIRDRESS, WARDROBE ALLOWANCE

- A. Exception to Work Time: Employer may require a Performer to report ready for work made-up with hairdress and/or in wardrobe without assistance from the Employer. In such cases, any time spent by the Performer therein prior to the Performer's first call shall not be work time for any purpose, but the Employer may not have a Performer do any such preparation at any place designated by the Employer. The mere fact that a dressing room is available to Performers on the work site, to which he/she is not directed to report, is not the designation of a place for preparation by Employer. In the case of wardrobe, if the Performer is allowed to take home wardrobe or furnished a dressing room with the wardrobe available in the dressing room, the time spent by such Performer in wardrobe shall not be considered work time.
- B. Except as specifically designated in the foregoing Subsection 11.A, any call by Employer for makeup, hairdress, or wardrobe is a call to work. Any Performer to whom Employer supplies the services of a makeup artist for makeup, or hairdresser for hairdressing, shall be considered to have a call for makeup or hairdress. Where the Performer has reported pursuant to a call for makeup, hairdress or wardrobe, the time so spent shall be work time.
- C. Where makeup or hairdress other than ordinary street makeup or hairdress is required by Employer, a professional hairdresser and makeup artist (if and as needed) shall be provided for the purpose of applying and maintaining such makeup and hairdress. If an Employer requires a Performer to furnish any special hairdress necessitating an expenditure, Employer shall provide an advance covering the expenditure at facilities designated by Employer.

- D. Adequate facilities shall be provided for removing makeup and hairdress which may be the same facilities used for applying makeup and hairdress. Time spent in removal of complicated or Extraordinary makeup or hairdress shall be work time, but not removal of ordinary makeup and hairdress.
- E. On-Camera Performers who supply specified personal wardrobe worn during rehearsals or production shall receive a maintenance fee for each complete wardrobe change at the following rates:
 - 1. Non-evening wear: $15.00 per costume change for each 2 days or part thereof
 - 2. Evening wear: $25.00 per costume change for each 2 days or part thereof
- F. “Wardrobe Change”: A single wardrobe change shall consist of at least one additional clothing item worn above the waist (such as a blouse or shirt) and at least one additional clothing item worn below the waist (such as slacks or skirt) unless only one (1) such area is visible to the camera. If so, one (1) additional item in the visible area shall be considered a wardrobe change. Items such as dresses, gowns, overcoats, etc. shall be considered a change by themselves unless always worn as part of a single outfit. Further, each item of clothing shall be counted only once in determining the total number of changes even though the item may be used in more than one outfit. No additional fees shall be charged for mixing and matching wardrobe items. For example, if outfit #1 is a blue blazer and tan slacks and outfit #2 is a gray suit, use of the blazer and suit pants to create a third outfit shall not require an additional fee. Accessories such as scarves, ties, and jewelry shall not be counted as items of clothing for this purpose.
- G. Wardrobe supplied by the On-Camera Performer which is damaged or lost in the course of employment shall be repaired or replaced at the expense of Employer provided that notice of such damage or loss is given Employer within a reasonable time after such damage.
- H. Stunt doubles shall be provided with duplicated, properly fitting wardrobe which shall be appropriately cleaned after prior use by another Performer.

12. REST PERIODS

Effective July 1, 2005, Employer shall provide voice-over performers who are engaged to work in excess of one (1) hour with a five (5) minute rest period for each hour of recording, provided that an employer may accommodate a performers request that applicable rest periods be aggregated in order to permit earlier dismissal.

13. REST PERIOD; LIQUIDATED DAMAGES FOR VIOLATION

- A. A Performer shall be entitled to a rest period of twelve (12) consecutive hours from the time he/she is finally dismissed for the day until his/her first call thereafter, whether for makeup, wardrobe, hairdress or any other purpose.
- B. The above provisions regarding the rest period shall be subject to the following exceptions:
 - 1. Where the Employer is videotaping on a nearby location, only if exterior photography is required on the day before and on the day after such reduced rest period, the twelve (12) hour rest period may be reduced to ten (10) hours, but such reduction may not again be allowed unless three (3) days without such reduction intervenes. The reduction to ten (10) hours in the circumstances described applies only if both of the days between which the rest period intervenes are spent at a nearby location.
 - 2. Where a Performer arrives at his/her place of lodging on an overnight location after 9:00 p.m. and does not work that night, the rest period with respect to the first call following such arrival may be ten (10) hours instead of twelve (12) hours, but the first call must be at the place of lodging.
 - 3. The Performer shall be entitled to a rest period of 58 consecutive hours (36 consecutive hours if on overnight location) once each week.
- C. The Performer may waive the rest period without AFTRA's consent, but if he/she does so, he/she shall be entitled to Liquidated Damages of a day's pay or $780.00, whichever is the lesser sum. The Performer may be required to waive the rest period if the violation is not over 1 1/2 hours. The above Liquidated Damages of a day's pay or $780.00, whichever is the lesser sum, shall be automatically incurred in any case in which the Performer waives the rest period. The Liquidated Damages may not be waived without the consent of AFTRA.

14. MEAL PERIODS; ALLOWANCES; LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

- A. Allowable meal periods shall not be counted as work time for any purpose. The Performer's first meal period shall commence within six (6) hours following the time of his/her first call for the day. Succeeding meal periods of the same Performer shall commence within six (6) hours after the end of the preceding meal period. A meal period shall not be less than one-half (1/2) hour nor more than one (1) hour in length. If, upon the expiration of such six (6) hour period, the camera is in the actual course of photography, it shall not be a violation to complete such photography. If, on location or while traveling to or from location, the delay is not due to any fault or negligence of the Employer, its agents, or persons contracted by it to render the catering service, or if delay is caused by common carriers such as railroads, there shall be no Liquidated Damages for violation of the above provisions. If the caterer is chosen carefully and is delayed in reaching the location beyond the required time for commencing a meal period, there shall be no Liquidated Damages for the violation; but if such delay shall continue beyond 1/2 hour, work shall cease and the time intervening between such cessation of work and the meal period shall be work time.

If by reason of a long makeup, wardrobe or hairdress period of a Performer, application of the above-stated rule would require calling a meal period for such Performer at a time earlier than that required for the rest of the set, Employer shall not be required to call such meal period if food, such as coffee and sandwiches, is made available to such Performer before the time for his/her established call, it being understood that no deduction shall be made from work time for such period. It is further understood however, that such Performer shall be given a meal period within six (6) hours from the time such food is made available to the Performer.

B. The Liquidated Damages for meal period violations shall be:

$25 to each Performer for the first one-half hour of violation or fraction thereof;
$35 to each Performer for the 2nd one-half hour or fraction thereof;
$50 to each Performer for the 3rd and each additional one-half hour or fraction thereof.

C. Meals must be provided on all locations. All Performers shall be entitled to a basic $48.40 per diem meal allowance on overnight locations. The Employer shall have the right to deduct from the per diem meal allowance the following amounts for each meal furnished, as follows: breakfast, $9.30; lunch: $14.00; dinner: $25.10.

D. Whenever Employer supplies meals or other food or beverages to the cast or crew, or provides money in lieu thereof, the same shall be furnished to all Performers. Regarding beverages, this provision is applicable only in those situations where the Employer supplies beverages to the cast and crew and is not applicable where isolated groups may supply their own beverages (e.g., prop truck with cooler for beverages). When meals are served to Performers, tables and seats shall be made available for them. No time shall be deducted from work time for any meal supplied by the Employer until the Performers are given the opportunity to get in line for the actual feeding of Performers.

“Meal” means an adequate, well-balanced serving of a variety of wholesome, nutritious foods. The furnishing of snacks, such as hot dogs or hamburgers, to Performers by Employer shall not constitute a meal period. Meals supplied by the Employer shall not be deducted from the Performers wages but may be deducted from the per diem allowances specified herein.

15. STORY, SONG AND PRODUCTION CONFERENCES

Story, song, and production conferences on any day on which the Performer is not otherwise working shall not be counted as work time for any purpose. This provision shall not be construed to interrupt the consecutive employment of Performer.

16. STUDY OF LINES OR SCRIPTS

Study of lines or scripts shall not be counted as work time for any purpose except during the period between reporting and dismissal.

17. PUBLICITY INTERVIEWS AND STILLS

- B. Publicity Stills: If the Employer desires the services of the Performer on a day when the Performer is not otherwise engaged hereunder to make publicity stills, and if the Performer agrees to render such services, Performer shall receive the 50% of the Day Player rate for up to four (4) hours of services. Any time in excess of four (4) hours for any day spent solely in taking publicity stills shall require the Day Player minimum. Use of such stills is strictly limited to publicity of the Program itself and not for general client brochures, magazine ads etc., which are unrelated to the Program produced in which the Performer appears.

18. REHEARSAL TIME

- A. The reading of lines, acting, singing or dancing in preparation for the Performer's performance, in the presence and under the supervision of a representative of Employer, constitutes "Rehearsal" time. Rehearsals shall be counted as work time.
- B. Auditions, tests, makeup and wardrobe tests do not constitute rehearsals.
- C. AFTRA agrees to grant waivers freely for the training of a Performer in a particular skill such as horseback riding, fencing, etc. Compensation, if any, shall be agreed to between the Performer and the Employer, subject to the approval of AFTRA in the event of a dispute.
- D. Neither tests, auditions, fittings, publicity stills, pre-production stills, pre-recording of material prior to Principal Photography, nor training specified in Subsection C above after employment but before the starting date of the Performer's employment, shall start the employment period of such Performer. Compensation, if any, for such services shall be as otherwise provided herein.

19. SATURDAY AND SUNDAY WORK; NIGHT WORK; HOLIDAYS

- A. All On-Camera Performers shall receive double time for the sixth and seventh day of work in a work week. Voice-Over Performers shall receive double time for Saturday and Sunday work, regardless of the length of the work week.

A work week rendered on "overnight location, as defined herein, shall be deemed to be a workweek consisting of six (6) overnight location days or six (6) days of any combination of studio and overnight location days, which combination includes a sixth day overnight location day. An "overnight location" day shall be deemed to mean any day on which a Performer is being paid by Employer which is spent or worked by Performer on an overnight location on the day of departure or return to and/or from such location (provided the Performer does not actually work otherwise for Employer at its studio).

On an overnight location, the On-Camera Performer rate is based on a six (6) day, 44-hour workweek at $3,089.10 ($3,150.90 effective 5/1/13), instead of a five (5) day, 40-hour week at $2,808.65, $2,864.80 effective 5/1/13. Employment is still consecutive with daily overtime paid after eight (8) hours as follows:

9th and 10th hour: $$2,808.65/40 \times 1.5 = \105.32 per hour effective 5/1/13= $$2,864.80/40 \times 1.5 = \107.43 per hour

11th hour on: $$2,808.65/40 \times 2 = \140.43 per hour

A Performer shall be paid for a holiday which is not worked only if a Performer is required to spend any such holiday on an overnight location. The amount of Overtime paid on such holidays shall be the same rate as for the first eight (8) hours of work times two (double-time of regular workday pay). There shall be no compounding of the premium pay provided herein.

- D. At the time of acceptance by a Performer of a weather permitting Call, the Performer shall advise Employer of any possible conflict for immediate subsequent days.

Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, no Background Actor hired as such may be employed for scripted lines on location; and no Background Actor hired as such may be employed for scripted lines for work at the studio on the same day as the day on which he/she was hired as a Background Actor. If such person is again adjusted to perform Day Player services in the different role in the same Program, he/she shall not be entitled to consecutive days of employment between the time when he/she is first signed off as a Day Player and the time when he/she is again adjusted. If a Background Actor has been adjusted to perform Day Player work, the Employer may retake the scene with a different Day Player, without any Liquidated Damages for failure to recall such Background Actor. A Background Actor adjusted for Non-Scripted lines shall not be entitled to the Day Player pay for any day or days before he/she was adjusted.

The day's compensation due a Performer hired as a Background Actor, whether by the day or by the week, and adjusted for Day Player work, including services as a Background Actor and as a Day Player, shall be computed as if the Background Actor were employed from the beginning of the day as a Day Player.

An Employer may choose not to provide overnight lodging at Distant Locations if it is reasonably feasible for Performers to travel to such Distant Location within the work day and Employer does not provide overnight lodging to other cast, crew or personnel in connection with the Program. In such instance, Employer shall provide transportation (or reimbursement mileage) to Performers to such Distant Location. If Employer provides air transportation to distant locations, such transportation may be coach, provided no other cast, crew or production personnel fly any other class, and bus and railroad transportation is acceptable if no other means is available or feasible under the circumstances. If a Performer is required to drive his/her own car to a Nearby or Distant Location, he/she shall be paid at the maximum rate per mile which the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations provide. Should a Performer elect to use any form of transportation other than that provided by the Employer, he/she shall be reimbursed at an amount equivalent to what the Employer would have paid for hours spent if the Performer had used the Employer's transportation.

- E. A Performer shall be dismissed at the place at which he/she reported to work, not at a subsequent location (unless this would make no sense under the circumstances).

- F. Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to break the consecutive employment of the Performer.
- G. Reasonable meal periods shall be given during traveling and allowable meal periods of not less than one-half (1/2) hour nor more than one (1) hour each shall be deducted from travel time.

29. MINORS

- A. Recognizing the special situation that arises when Minor (as defined below) children are employed, the parties hereto have formulated the following guidelines to ensure that the work environment is a proper one for the Minor: that the conditions of employment are not detrimental to the health, education and morals of the Minor “morals” being defined as set forth in the penal code of the applicable state of employment; and that the best interest of the Minor be the primary consideration of the parent (as defined below) and the adults in charge of the production, with due regard to the age of the Minor.
- B. A “Minor” is: any Performer under the age of 18 years or legal age of majority in the state in which services are performed, except that it shall not include any such Performer if the Performer is legally emancipated, legally married, or a member of the United States armed forces.
- C. A “Parent” is a Parent or other adult who has the legal right to act as guardian of the Minor. A guardian, who shall be not less than the age of majority in the state in which the services are rendered, may be appointed by the Parent to fulfill the supervisory functions of the Parent required by this Agreement, provided that: (i) Employer is provided with written certification of such appointment by the Parent; and (ii) such appointment confers legal authority of the Parent to such guardian. In such instance where a Parent has appointed a guardian to supervise the Minor’s services hereunder, the term “Parent” shall be deemed to include such guardian.
- D. Interviews, Tests and Fittings: Calls for interviews, tests and fittings for Minors shall not take place at any time during which the Minor would otherwise be attending school, and shall be completed prior to 7:00 p.m. Two adults shall be present at all times during any such sessions, and the Minor shall not be removed from the reasonable, immediate proximity of the Parent. Casting directors or other representatives of the Employer shall make reasonable efforts to safeguard the Minor’s health, well-being and dignity during these sessions and shall not engage in any behavior which will embarrass, discredit, disconcert or otherwise compromise the dignity and mental attitude of the Minor.
- E. Engagement:
 - 1. Employer shall advise the Parent of the Minor of the terms and conditions of the employment (studio location, estimated hours, hazardous work, special abilities required etc.) to the extent that they are known at the time of hiring.

2. Prior to the first date of engagement, the Parent shall obtain, complete and submit to the Employer or its representative the appropriate documents required by state and local law related to the employment of a Minor.
 3. Upon employment of any Minor in any areas outside of California, Employer shall notify the AFTRA local office by telephone where such employment will take place. The Union will acknowledge receipt of this information to Employer in writing.
- F. Meals: Whenever Employer supplies meals or other food or beverages to the cast or crew the same shall be furnished to all Minors. Regarding beverages, this provision is applicable only in those situations where Employer supplies beverages to the cast and crew and is not applicable where isolated groups may supply their own beverages (e.g., prop trucks with cooler for beverages). When meals are served to Minors, tables and seats shall be made available for them. No time shall be deducted from work time for any meal supplied by Employer until the Minors are given the opportunity to get in the line for the actual feeding. “Meal” means an adequate, well-balanced serving of a variety of wholesome, nutritious foods. The furnishing of snacks, such as hot dogs or hamburgers, to Minors by Employer shall not constitute a meal period. Meals supplied by the Employer shall not be deducted from the Minors’ wage but may be deducted from the per diem.
- G. Supervision:
1. A Parent must be present at all times while a Minor is working, and shall have the right, subject to the production requirements, to be within sight and sound of the Minor. The Parent shall not interfere with the production or bring other Minors not engaged by Employer to the studio or location.
 2. A Parent will accompany a Minor to wardrobe, makeup, hairdressing and dressing room facilities. No dressing room shall be occupied simultaneously by a Minor and an adult Performer or by Minors of the opposite sex.
 3. No Minor shall be required to work in a situation which places the Minor in clear and present danger to life or limb. If a Minor believes he or she to be in such a dangerous situation after having discussed the matter with the Stunt Coordinator and Parent, then the Minor shall not be required to perform in such situation regardless of the validity of his or her belief.
 4. When an Employer engages a Minor, Employer must designate one individual on each set to coordinate all matters relating to the welfare of the Minor and shall notify the Minor’s Parent of the name of such individual.
 5. When a Minor is required to travel to and from location, the Employer shall provide Minor’s Parent with the same transportation, lodging, meals, mealtimes and per diem allowance provided to the Minor.

6. Whenever federal, state or local laws so require, a qualified child care person (e.g., LPN, RN or Social Worker) shall be present on the set during the work day.

H. Play Area: Employer will provide a safe and secure place for Minors to rest and play.

I. Working Hours: When a Minor is at location, the Minor must leave location as soon as reasonably possible following the end of his or her working day. Minors' maximum hours of work shall be as outlined below (does not include meal time):

Age of Minor	Maximum Hours of Work	End of Day
0-5 years	6 hours	7:00 p.m.
6-11 years	8 hours	8:00 p.m.	school days
		10:00 p.m.	non-school days
12-17 years	9 hours	10:00 p.m.	school days
		12:30 a.m.	non-school days

1. Work Hours and Rest Time:

- a. The work day for Minors shall begin no earlier than 7:00 a.m. for studio productions (6:00 a.m. for location productions) and shall end no later than the time specified above.
- b. The maximum work time for a Minor shall not exceed that provided by the laws of the state governing his/her employment, but in no event shall work time exceed the maximum hours of work stated above. Work time shall not include meal time, but shall include a mandatory 5-minute break for each hour of work.

2. Employer shall make every effort to adjust a Minor's call time so that a Minor need not spend unnecessary hours waiting on the set.

J. Unusual Physical, Athletic or Acrobatic Ability

- 1. A Minor may be asked to perform unusual physical, athletic and/or acrobatic activity or stunts, provided that the Minor and Parent represent that the Minor is fully capable of performing such activity and the Parent grants prior written consent thereto.
- 2. If the nature of the activity so requires, a person qualified by training and/or experience with respect to the activity involved will be present at the time of production.
- 3. Employer will supply any equipment needed and/or requested for safety reasons.

K. Child Labor Laws

1. Employer agrees to determine and comply with all applicable child labor laws governing the employment of Minors, and, if one is readily available, shall keep a summary of said laws in the production office.
2. Any provisions of this Section 30 which are inconsistent and less restrictive than any other child labor law or regulation in the applicable state or other applicable jurisdiction shall be deemed modified to comply with such law or regulation.
3. Inconsistent terms: The provisions of this Section 30 shall prevail over any inconsistent and less restrictive terms contained in any other sections of this Agreement which would otherwise be applicable to the employment of the Minor, but such terms shall be ineffective only to the extent of such inconsistency without invalidating the remainder of such provision.

L. Medical Care

1. Prior to a Minor's first call, Employer shall be provided with the written consent of the Minor's Parent for medical care in the case of an emergency. However, if the Parent refuses to provide such consent because of religious convictions, Employer shall have the right to require written consent for external emergency aid for the Minor should such need arise.

30. INDEMNIFICATION

- A. Employer shall indemnify and hold the Performer harmless from and against any liability, loss, damages and costs, including reasonable counsel's fees, by reason of any injury or damages incurred by a third party, including any other member of the cast, production staff crew or any other person, firm or corporation, which injury or damages are caused by another Performer's performance (including stunts) which occurs under the direction and control of Employer within the scope of the Performer's employment by Employer. Performer shall immediately notify Employer of any such pending or threatened legal action and the Employer shall, at its own cost and expense and without undue delay, provide the defense thereof. Performer shall cooperate with Employer as requested by Employer in the defense of any such action. No settlement shall be effected with respect to any such action by Performer without the express consent of Employer.
- B. A Stunt Coordinator engaged pursuant to this Agreement who is acting within the scope of employment shall be entitled to indemnification in the same manner and to the same extent as specified in Subsection 31.A above, if said Stunt Coordinator was directly employed by Employer.
- C. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to confer greater liability on Employer than that which may be conferred by law, regulation or statute.

31. CAST CREDITS

Effective July 1, 2005, names of Performers (excluding background actors) will be included in the credits listed in game software only. An inadvertent failure to do so will not be deemed to be a violation of the Agreement. The Employer shall provide credits to an Industry website identified by the Industry Cooperative Committee as appropriate and shall make corrections of inadvertent errors or omissions that appear on said website.

32. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. An On-Camera Performer who gives an off-camera narration other than as the character portrayed on-camera, shall be paid full additional off-camera wages for such narration.
- B. All employment of Performers in Interactive Programs shall be under one of the forms of hiring specified herein.
- C. If any Program includes a union label, AFTRA shall have the right to have its label incorporated into the Program.
- D. Employer shall maintain a telephone within a reasonable distance on all locations where practical.
- E. The Employer believes that it has a highly commendable record of protecting animals and of preventing their abuse during production of Programs, and hereby confirms the commitment to the Principal that animals should be humanely treated during the production of Interactive Programs. The following constitutes acceptable standards of animal treatment:
 - 1. Employer shall make known throughout its organization its own insistence on the humane treatment of animals;
 - 2. Employer shall cooperate with the American Humane Association on Programs involving the use of animals when appropriate; and
 - 3. Employer shall require its production staff to observe adequate safeguards against the cruelty or killing of animals on or off-camera.

ARTICLE III - WORKING CONDITIONS - BACKGROUND ACTORS

- A. This Article III contains provisions applicable to the working conditions of Background Actors. In addition, the following provisions of Article II shall be also deemed incorporated herein:
1. Section 5, "Work Time - Definitions & Exceptions";
 2. Section 6, "Overtime"
 3. Section 10, "Fittings, Wardrobe Tests and Makeup Tests";
 4. Section 11, "Makeup, Hairdress, Wardrobe Allowance";
 5. Section 12, "Rest Periods";
 6. Section 13, "Rest Period; Liquidated Damages for Violation";
 7. Section 14, "Meal Periods; Allowances; Liquidated Damages";
 8. Section 18, "Rehearsal Time";
 9. Section 19, "Saturday and Sunday Work; Night Work; Holidays";
 10. Section 21, "Scripted Lines, Upgrade of Background Actors (Non-Scripted Lines Only)";
 11. Section 25, "Dressing Rooms; Miscellaneous Amenities";
 12. Section 28, "Protection of Performers; Special Conditions";
 13. Section 29, "Travel";
 14. Section 30, "Minors".
- B. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of Article II applicable to Background Actors by this reference and the provisions of this Article III, the provisions of Article III shall govern.

2. INSERTS

- A. Background Actor notified in advance may do inserts for a single Program for the same day's pay. Background Actors notified in advance and specifically called to do inserts in two (2) or more Programs in the same day, may do up to and including five (5) such inserts for the same days pay, but shall be paid an additional day's pay for each five (5) additional inserts thereafter (or fraction thereof). For example, if he/she does a total of seven (7) such inserts in one day, he/she would be entitled to two (2) days' pay. If he/she does a total of fifteen (15) such inserts in one day, he/she would be entitled to three (3) days' pay.
- B. Background Actors notified in advance may do wardrobe tests for more than one Program for the same day's pay.
- C. No Background Actor shall be permitted to perform any work for more than one Program for the same day's pay, including Overtime, except for: inserts; wardrobe tests; work for different Platforms of the same Program.

3. WAIVERS

- A. If an Employer requests a waiver affecting Background Actors, AFTRA will issue the waiver without the imposition of any conditions if it believes that the Employer is entitled thereto. In the absence of misstatement or concealment of the facts the waiver will be final. If AFTRA believes that the Employer is not entitled to such final waiver, it shall issue a reviewable waiver (which is equivalent to a refusal of a waiver), or it may issue a conditional waiver wherein it will designate the conditions upon which it is willing to have the Employer proceed. Employer may either accept such conditions or refuse to accept the same.
- B. If a conditional waiver is issued and the Employer rejects the conditions thereof, or if AFTRA issues a reviewable waiver, the Employer may nevertheless proceed as though a final waiver had been issued. If the Employer proceeds without first obtaining a final waiver or without complying with the conditional waiver, it shall notify AFTRA in writing to that effect within a reasonable time thereafter.
- C. Either party shall have the right to invoke the arbitration procedure as provided in Article I, Section 41, to resolve any dispute regarding waivers.
- D. All waivers shall be requested as far in advance as reasonably possible and shall be acted upon promptly by AFTRA. If AFTRA fails to do so, the Employer may proceed as though AFTRA had issued a reviewable waiver, by so notifying AFTRA in writing.
- E. The application for a waiver by any Employer shall not be deemed an admission that the Employer cannot proceed without obtaining such waiver, nor shall the issuance by AFTRA of a reviewable waiver be an admission that the Employer is entitled to such a waiver.

4. HAZARDOUS WORK

- A. When Background Actors are required to do night work, “wet” work, or work of a rough or dangerous character, the Employer shall notify the Background Actors at the time of the call. When a Background Actor is not so notified, he/she shall be given the option of refusing to perform the work. If he/she refuses, he/she must be paid for all time elapsed from the time he/she is called until he/she is dismissed. Such refusal shall not result in discrimination against such Background Actors.
- B. Background Actors who are hired at Scale, and who thereafter accept hazardous work, shall be entitled to additional compensation. The amount of additional compensation shall be agreed to between the Background Actor and the Employer, or the Employer representative, prior to the performance of such work.
- C. The Employer will not deliberately hire anyone but Qualified Professional Background Actors to perform hazardous Background Actor work in accordance with this agreement. No stunt person hired as such may be employed for Background Actor work on location except for bona fide emergencies not within the contemplation of the Employer. No stunt person hired as such may be employed for Background Actor work at the studio on the day he/she was employed as a stunt person on the same production. Upon a written request from AFTRA, the Employer will submit a report to AFTRA indicating whether any stunt persons have been employed on a particular Program. Upon the written request of AFTRA, the Employer will also furnish a copy of the script involved and make a tape available to AFTRA for viewing.

- D. For violation of this Section 4, the following Liquidated Damages shall apply per person per day:

$215.00 for the first violation

$350.00 for the second and each succeeding violation

These Liquidated Damages shall not apply if there is a bona fide dispute as to whether the work is "Background Actor work" or "stunt work."

5. WET WORK

A Background Actor required to get wet shall receive additional compensation of $13.65 (effective 5/1/13 13.90) per day. He/she may refuse to get wet and, if so, shall receive 1/2 day's pay for wet work, or the actual hours worked, whichever is greater.

6. BODY MAKEUP, SKULL CAP, HAIR GOODS

A Background Actor who is directed to and does have body makeup or oil applied to more than 50% of his/her body and/or who is required to and does wear a rubber skull cap, and/or who is required to and does wear hair goods affixed with spirit gum (specified as full beards, mutton chops or a combination of goatee and mustache) and/or who, at the time of his/her employment is required to and does wear his/her own natural full-grown beard as a condition of employment shall be entitled to additional compensation of $18.20 (effective 5/1/13 $18.55) per day.

It is also understood and agreed that any female Background Actor required to have body makeup applied to her arms, shoulders and chest while wearing a self-furnished low-cut gown and any Background Actor, male or female, required to have body makeup applied to his or her full arms and legs shall be entitled to such additional compensation therefor.

7. INTERVIEWS

- A. Background Actors reporting for interview shall receive an allowance for the first two (2) hours of the interview in the amount of $5.00. For additional time of the interview, Background Actors shall be paid in units of two (2) hours at the specified regular hourly rate for the call being filled. If, within any period of interview time, any recording or photography, still or otherwise, is done for use in any production, Background Actors shall be paid the agreed daily wage; except that still pictures to be used exclusively for identification of the Background Actor or wardrobe may be taken by Employer without making such payment.

- B. Upon completion of the interview the Background Actor shall be notified whether or not he/she has been selected, and he/she shall be advised as to the daily or weekly rate of compensation to be paid. If the Background Actor is not used in the production for which he/she was selected, he/she shall be paid the agreed wage (one day or one week) unless the Background Actor is not available when called, in which event he/she shall not be entitled to any payment.

- C. The Employer agrees to give AFTRA written notification within 48 hours after the interview, as to persons so selected on interview.
- D. A Background Actor required to report for a second interview for the same job shall be paid not less than two (2) hours pay at the established daily rate.
- E. Background Actors who are required to and do report for an interview in dress clothes shall be paid an additional $6.00 over and above the regular interview allowance.

8. SIXTEEN-HOUR RULE

- A. Background Actors shall not be employed in excess of a total of sixteen (16) hours, including meal periods, Travel Time and actual time required to turn in wardrobe or property, in any one day of twenty-four (24) hours.
- B. Violation of the foregoing sixteen-hour rule shall be one (1) day's pay (at the Background Actor's daily rate including any additional compensation) for each hour, or fraction thereof of such violation. Such payment shall be paid at straight time, unless the violation occurs on a day for which double-time is provided under Article II, Section 19.A. above.
- C. This provision shall not apply in any case where such violation occurred as a result of circumstances or conditions, other than production considerations or conditions, beyond the control of the Employer with respect to or affecting the return of such Background Actors from location. Where the payment is excused the Background Actor shall receive all applicable Overtime. AFTRA will not claim any breach of contract resulting from the violation of the sixteen-hour rule unless the payment specified above is incurred and not paid.

9. CALL BACKS

- A. A "Call Back", as the phrase is used herein, means instruction by the Employer to the Background Actor given prior to the dismissal of such Background Actor to return to work on the same Interactive Program.
- B. Employer agrees that Call Backs for Background Actors shall be made as early as possible on the day prior to that specified in such Call Back. When given a definite Call Back, a Background Actor may not be canceled with respect thereto after 4:30 p.m. of that day, except in accordance with the provisions of Sections 10 and 11 of this Article III. Unless the Background Actor has been given a definite "Call Back" to return the following day by 5:00 p.m. of a particular day of which shooting commences prior to 2:00 p.m., he/she shall be free to seek and accept other employment commitments.

- C. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Background Actor is established so that he/she cannot be replaced and the Employer requires his/her services on the following work day by giving him/her a definite Call Back, the Background Actor shall report pursuant to such Call Back. A Background Actor, who is given a Call Back after accepting another employment commitment and who must report pursuant to such Call Back because he/she has been established and cannot be replaced, will receive the assistance of the Employer giving the Call Back or its designated casting agency in arranging for him/her to be relieved of such other employment commitment.

10. CANCELLATION OF CALLS

- A. The Employer shall have the right to cancel any Call for any of the following reasons beyond his/her control: (1) illness in Principal cast; (2) fire, flood or other similar catastrophe or event of force majeure; or (3) governmental regulations or order issued due to a national emergency. In the event of any such cancellation, the Background Actor so canceled shall receive a one-half (1/2) day's pay, except as provided in Subsections D and G below.
- B. The Employer shall be entitled to hold and use such Background Actors for four (4) hours only to the extent herein provided. For each additional two (2) hours or fraction thereof, the Background Actor shall receive a one-quarter (1/4) day's pay.
- C. During the time which the Background Actor is so held, the Employer has the privilege of putting the Background Actor into costume, rehearsing, or making other use of his/her services. If, however, any recordation or photography is done, whether still pictures or otherwise, Background Actors shall be paid the agreed daily wage.
- D. If any Background Actor is notified of such cancellation before 6:00 p.m. of the work day previous to the work date specified in such call, or is otherwise employed on the same work date by the same production company at a rate equal to or higher than the rate applicable to such Background Actor as specified in such canceled call, he/she shall not be entitled to such one-half (1/2) day's pay.
- E. If the Background Actor's second work assignment is for a time to commence less than four (4) hours after the time of his/her canceled Call, the Background Actor shall receive in lieu of the one-half (1/2) day's pay an allowance for the cancellation of the Call on a straight time hourly basis, computed in thirty (30) minute units from the time of the first Call to the time of his/her second Call. Overtime, if any, on the second work assignment is computed without reference to the first Call. If the second work assignment is for a time to commence more than four (4) hours after the time of his/her canceled Call, the Background Actor shall receive the one-half (1/2) day's pay. Overtime, if any, shall be computed without reference to the first Call.
- F. If a Background Actor has not been notified as contemplated by Subsection D above, then notice must be posted at the hour designated for the Call, stating that the set will not work.
- G. Nothing herein contained shall enlarge the Employer's right to cancel Calls.

11. WEATHER PERMITTING CALLS

- A. When scheduled photography is canceled by Employer because of weather conditions, Background Actors reporting pursuant to a “weather permitting” call shall be paid one-half (1/2) day’s pay, which shall entitle the Employer to hold the Background Actor for not more than four (4) hours; the Background Actor shall receive a one-quarter (1/4) day’s pay for each additional two (2) hours or fraction thereof, during which he/she is thereafter held.
- B. During this time the Employer may costume, rehearse or otherwise use the Background Actor on the specified photoplay, except for recording or photography still or otherwise, of such Background Actor.
- C. If the Background Actor is used for such recording or photographing, he/she shall receive a days pay.
- D. The Background Actor may cancel a weather permitting Call previously accepted by notifying the agency which issued the call prior to 7:30 p.m. or the closing time of such agency, whichever is earlier, unless he/she has been established in the picture.
- E. Weather permitting Calls shall not be issued for stages in studios, nor shall a weather permitting Call Back be issued to any Background Actor after he/she has been established.
- F. When a weather permitting Call is given, the Employer must specify that the Background Actor is to work: (1) if it is raining; (2) if it is cloudy; or (3) if the sun is shining; provided that if any other special type of weather is a condition precedent to the Background Actor working, the same may be specified, but must be described sufficiently so as to be capable of understanding by a Background Actor.
- G. Employer agrees that it will not request the Background Actors to call in the early morning hours of the following day for a possible weather permitting call.

12. UNDIRECTED SCENES

Upon request of Employer, AFTRA will grant an automatic and unconditional waiver whereby the Employer may photograph long shots of the normal activities of crowds at public events or crowd scenes. The events must be open to the general public and publicized as such. The crowd so photographed shall appear only as atmospheric background except that Background Actors or photographic doubles may be used if the Employer stages one or more tie-in shots using Qualified Professional Performers and/or Background Actors in connection with such tie-scenes.

13. OMNIES

Any Background Actor who speaks atmospheric words, commonly known in the entertainment industry as “omnies”, shall be entitled to the basic wage for the particular call.

14. HIRING PRACTICES

- A. No Background Actor shall be employed on account of personal favoritism.
- B. Rotation of work shall be established to such reasonable degree as may be possible and practicable.
- C. No person having authority from the Employer to hire, employ or direct the services of Background Actors shall demand or accept any fee, gift, or other remuneration in consideration of hiring or employing any person to perform work or services as a Background Actor, or permitting such person to continue in said employment.

Employer shall not be obligated to use Performer's services or any results or proceeds thereof, nor shall Employer be obligated to produce, complete the production of, release, distribute, exhibit, advertise or exploit the Program or any part thereof. Nothing in this paragraph alters or releases Employer's obligations to Performer with reference to compensation. Employer shall be entitled to the maximum work period provided by the AFTRA Agreement with respect to the services provided hereunder. Any services beyond such time shall be compensated at the rate specified on the first page to which this Rider is attached. If no rate is specified, the compensation for overtime shall be the applicable AFTRA rate.

DEFINITIONS: "Interactive Media": is any media on which digitized product operates and through which the user may interact with such product including but not limited to personal computers, games, machines, arcade games, all CD-interactive machines and any and all analogous similar or dissimilar microprocessor-based units and the electronic formats/platforms which may be utilized in connection therewith. "Cloud Gaming": refers to a distribution system whereby a complete Interactive Program produced and released under this Agreement, that is otherwise distributed, and is also fully streamed via one or more electronic communication streaming services to the consumer for game play and use by the consumer (i.e., no portion of the Interactive Program is downloaded to and/or stored on the consumer's client device) and the consumer is required to maintain a continuous connection to the service in order to interact with the Interactive Program. "Integration": is the use of an excerpt of a Performer's performance that was rendered under the terms of this Agreement, in any other Interactive program for which the Performer is not engaged to perform but such other programs is produced by the same employer as originally employed the Performer. Any other reuse of the Performer's performance shall be considered "reuse" hereunder. "Integration": does not mean or include: (i) the repetition of segments of any single Interactive Program that may appear to be many different programs due to the way viewers choose or recall various segments and manipulate the program; (ii) the re-configuration or reformulation of the material produced hereunder for a single program for the computer software code to adapt the Interactive Program to different Platforms; (iii) the use of material for Interactive Media in Linear Programs. "Program": a program refers to the final version of a fully-edited product for presentation to the viewer or user. "Interactive Program": is the final version of a fully-edited product presented on Interactive Media notwithstanding any variations which may occur between Platforms. IV. TRAILERS/PROMOTIONS: Employer shall have the right to make trailers including “teasers” (a short trailer) for the purpose of advertising and promoting the Interactive Program. The use of a Performer’s services in any such trailer or “teaser” twelve (12) minutes in length or less shall not require the payment of additional compensation if the recodation of such trailer occurs during the Performers employment in connection with the applicable Interactive Program. Effective July 1, 2005, each Principal Performer seen or heard in recorded material incorporated from a game into a Promotional Program exceeding twelve (12) minutes in length shall be entitled to no less a single session payment at the applicable day performer minimum for the use of such footage and soundtrack.

VI. SCREEN CREDIT: No casual or inadvertent failure by Employer to comply with the provisions of any credit obligations shall constitute a breach of this Agreement. Performer’s rights and remedies in the event of a failure or omission by Employer to provide Performer the screen credit on the Program indicated herein shall be limited to Performer’s rights, if any, to recover damages at law, but in no event shall Performer be entitled by reason of any such breach to terminate this Agreement or to enjoin or restrain the distribution or exhibition of the Program.

Employer shall own all results and proceeds of Performer's services hereunder, including the copyrights thereof, and shall have all other rights of ownership, subject only to the provisions of the AFTRA Agreement requiring the payment of additional compensation for Cloud Gaming and Integration and/or separate bargaining use for Linear Media and other reuse not covered in the Agreement. The Performer hereby consents to and grants Employer the exclusive right in and in connection with the Program and its advertising and promotion of the Program to use and license others to use Performer's name and likeness without the payment of additional compensation therefor in trailers and any and all promotional uses within the specifications of the AFTRA Agreement. Employer may exercise its such rights for trade or for any other lawful or authorized purposes desired by Employer.

This Agreement may not be assigned by Performer. Employer may assign this Agreement to any other person or entity provided that such entity assumes all of the executory obligations of Employer hereunder in compliance with the rules and regulations of AFTRA.

Re: Article I-General: Section 18. Trailers; Promotions

Dear Scott:

This confirms our understanding with respect to the following:

Employer has right to make Trailers and/or Promotions of 12 minutes or less without additional compensation otherwise due a performer engaged to perform a role in a game, provided recording of such Trailer and/or Promotions Program is made during performers session and is connected to the same Interactive program. Further, if a performer is seen or heard in a Promotional Program exceeding twelve (12) minutes in length the performer shall be compensated no less than a session fee at the applicable day performer rate. In addition, nothing under Section 18 shall be used as an endorsement of any service or product. If a performer is engaged to provide services on a "Linear Program" as defined in Section 3. G. ii. (a)-(c), said performer shall be paid an additional payment equal to the applicable session fee.

During the term of the 2010-2011 IMA, a disagreement arose between the bargaining parties over the application of Section 18 to spots on television that promote programs produced under the IMA. The Employers and AFTRA each reserve their respective positions with respect to all issues related to that dispute.

Very truly yours,

Mathis Dunn

Re: Cloud Gaming

Dear Scott:

This confirms our understanding with respect to the following:

By way of clarification, no Cloud Gaming payment would be due as a result of the Interactive Program being fully or partially downloaded to and/or stored on the consumer's device. Alternatively, if what is downloaded is part of the streaming service's user interface used solely to connect the user to the full streaming game play of an Interactive Program (as contrasted with a part of the Interactive Program itself) such a download in and of itself would not exempt the Interactive Program from the Cloud Gaming payment.

Also as clarification, if the Interactive Program is available only through a Cloud Gaming service and is not available as a packaged good or a digital download, no Cloud Gaming payment shall be owed to the Principal Performers and only the applicable minimum scale compensation under the Agreement would be due. However, if an Interactive Program is initially released through Cloud Gaming and subsequently is released as a packaged good or a digital download, the Cloud Gaming payment would be due.

Demos and trial versions of the Interactive Program, even if released to Cloud Gaming services, fall within the promotional use exception and do not trigger the Cloud Gaming payment.

Very truly yours,

Mathis Dunn

Re: Article II-Working Conditions-Principal Performers: Section 7. Engagement; Non-use of Services After Engagement

Dear Scott:

This confirms our understanding with respect to the following:

If a performer submits an audition tape which has been falsely manipulated or digitally enhanced in order to make the performer sound differently for the purpose of obtaining employment, does the employer still have the obligation to compensate the performer when the performer fails to provide services in the same manner heard by the employer on the audition tape which lead to the employment of the performer? AFTRA believes that any performer who falsifies and submits an audition recording and secures employment as a result of said recording, the employer would have grounds for immediate termination of the performer without compensation. Notwithstanding, AFTRA has its right and responsibility to investigate and carry out its due diligence with respect to any such incident. However, AFTRA agrees that if the performer manipulated in any way the audition recordings in the manner described above, the employer should not be responsible for paying a cancellation fee.

Dear Scott:

It is also understood that with respect to an Interactive Program which was commenced before the notice of termination was provided, any performer shall be permitted to perform services on said Interactive Program notwithstanding any subsequent strike.

Re: Remote Delivery Disputes

Dear Scott:

This confirms our understanding with respect to the Cloud Gaming provisions in predecessor agreements to the 2011-2014 Interactive Media Agreement:

In Settlement of the disputes arising out of and/or related to the Remote Delivery provisions, AFTRA and the signatory companies agree that the Remote Delivery provisions of all prior Interactive Media Agreements are deemed null and void and AFTRA (on behalf of itself and its members, successors and assigns) releases any and all claims arising out of or related to the Remote Delivery provisions of the 2010-2011 Interactive media Agreement and all predecessor agreements. Similarly, games produced under the 2010-2011 Interactive Media Agreement and all predecessor agreements are not subject to the Cloud Gaming payment provisions under the 2011-2014 Interactive Media Agreement.

Very truly yours,

Mathis Dunn
